By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Salado aldermen approved two resolutions June 18 putting in place an Economic Development Policy and the guidelines and criteria for granting property tax abatements.

The Economic Development Policy aims “to expand retail sales and development, attract new tourism venues, create new jobs, expand capital investment, expand hotel/motel tax growth, and foster redevelopment in identified Targeted Industries,” according to the resolution that aldermen adopted unanimously.

It delineates two categories of targeted industries. The first category includes high tech industries such as Research & Development, Advanced Technology, Information Technology, Information & Data Center, Corporate and Regional Offices, Bioscience and Medical

The second category of targeted industries include tourism based businesses such as Major Tourism Attractions/Entertainment Venues; Major Retail Sales and Shopping Centers; Meeting / Event Space; Hotel, Motel, and Bed and Breakfast

“You’re killing this town,” Lt. General Joe Weber told James Construction during a meeting in Salado last week. “We have to do something about it.”

The retired United States Marine Corp general is the executive director of the Texas Department of Transportation (TXDOT) and met with the Salado mayor, city manager, two aldermen, representatives from James Construction and representatives from the Salado Chamber of Commerce at the Village Municipal Building to discuss a plan for expediting the expansion of I-35 through Salado.

Gen. Weber had Bill Hale, Chief Engineer of TXDOT, Bobby Littlefield, Waco District Engineer, and Large, Mixed Use Developments.

In addition, a project proposed to receive Economic Development incentives that could include sales tax rebates, property tax abatements, waiving of building fees, specific hotel/motel funds for marketing and/or other incentives must meet other requirements, according to the policy:

- “Projects must be entirely within the corporate limits of the Village of Salado, or the proposed site must be contiguous with the Village limits and Applicant is willing to submit a petition for voluntary annexation prior to platting or issuance of a building permit, whichever occurs first.
- “Project benefits must result in a calculated direct payback of 5 or less years unless the project is on the Top 20 Recruitment List.
- “The Village shall not provide incentives if it finds that the request for the incentives were filed after the commencement of construction of a New Facility, or the Modernization, Redevelopment, or Expansion of an existing Facility.”

Hale told the group that TxDOT is working with James Construction on a new set of change orders that will expedite completion of the I-35 expansion through Salado. The 3.3 mile expansion is being built by James Construction for $70.4 million (not including right-of-way, engineering or contingency costs, which increase the total to more than $88 million).

Hale said that the new target date for completion of the project is May 2016. At a February town hall meeting in Salado in which no James Construction representatives were present, Jones told a

Salado to begin annexing properties

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Salado may begin the process in July to annex properties in its extra-territorial jurisdiction (ETJ) that have voluntarily requested to be brought into the city limits, including the Hidden Glen development off of Mary Lane on its northern border, the Salado ISD schools Thomas Arnold complex on its west border and a potential development off of Stinnett Mill Road.

City manager Kim Foutz reported to aldermen at their June 18 meeting that she would have a schedule next week for the steps required to annex these properties.

She told aldermen that building permits have been issued to JES Development Co. for the construction of Hidden Glen, a 50-unit affordable senior housing development that was approved last year to receive a 9% competitive housing grant.

Last December, aldermen approved a Chapter 380 grant agreement with JES Development in which the Village will pay out a $13,950 grant over 15 years. The grant is in lieu of a tax abatement that aldermen agreed to in February 2014.

Under the 9% Competitive Housing Grant, JES Development will receive a $580,000 tax credit each year for the next 10 years. Those tax credits are then sold on the market.

As part of the grant, renters of the Hidden Glen units must meet certain standards in terms of income. According to Mark Feaster, with JES Development Co. the annual income level must be at or below $32,000 per year for a couple, which is 60 percent of the median income for Bell County. Everyone in the unit must also be 62 years old. He added that the projects are not assisted living, but “independent living.”

The units are one bedroom apartments of about 700 sq. ft. that will rent for $530 per month and two bedroom apartments of about 850 sq. ft. that will rent for $695 per month.

During the 10 years that the tax credits are issued, the developers will have to continue to meet the requirements attached to the credits, including the income requirements for residents. “We can’t just go and change,” he said, “otherwise we will have to pony up all the credits.”

Chamber, tourism director to retire

Debbie Charbonneau, the Chamber of Commerce and Tourism Bureau Executive Director for the Village of Salado, announced her retirement plans effective July 7.

Charbonneau was appointed Bureau Director on November 4, 2004 and has been with the Village for over ten years. Charbonneau supervised activities related to event planning and execution, public relations, Visitor Center operations, meeting planning and attraction, and the general promotion of the Village. During her tenure with Salado, Charbonneau served on the Board of Directors for many statewide organizations including the Texas Travel Industry Association, Texas Downtown Association, the Meeting Professionals International, and the Texas Brazos Trail. In addition, Charbonneau served on local boards including Keep Salado Beautiful, Salado Community Foundation, and Leadership Salado.

“Her time with the Village of Salado has been a phenomenal success,” City manager Kim Foutz stated, “having responded to over a million tourism inquiries; providing leadership in the area of establishing an Ambassador Program; shepherding adoption of a Bureau Action Plan; establishing business training programs; working with the Tourism Council and the Village to create a Salado brand; and overseeing creation and implementation of two Tourism and Marketing Plans.”

“In my short time in working with Debbie, I have seen and experienced her passion for this Village,” Foutz said. “Debbie has the uncommon ability to rally volunteers, plan and supervise events, and carry out the mission of tourism. Her spirit, enthusiasm, and dedication will be greatly missed.”

“I feel very blessed to have had the opportunity to help build Salado into a premier travel destination,” Charbonneau said of her decade-plus in Salado. “I have enjoyed seeing Salado grow and although I

Salado Village Voice welcomes new intern from UMHB

La Traya Luke, a senior at the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor, recently began an internship at the Salado Village Voice, where she will write stories on local businesses and events.

She plans on graduating with her Bachelors of Art in Mass Communications with a concentration in Public Relations in the fall of 2015.

Growing up as the middle child of five, Luke says she has always dreamed of becoming the first person in her family to graduate from college. The road to her success was not always an easy one, for Luke. Throughout high school, she worked to save money for college but in order to pay for her college education, she decided to go into the military.

“I remember deciding to go into the military at a young age only because I come from a military family, mostly Army,” Luke said. “I decided to go into the Navy because I always wanted to be stationed on a ship and travel the world, plus they offered great educational benefits.”

Spending only three years in high school, La Traya graduated second in her class then decided to join the US Navy at the age of 17. She then spent two years stationed in Portsmouth Virginia where she worked as a Hospital Corpsman. Later she finished the last three years of her military career in San Diego, California working as a Hospital Corpsmen at Marine Corp. recruit Depot before returning to her hometown of San Antonio.

“I always had a passion for continuing my education, when I decided to leave the military in 2010, I didn’t waste any time starting school. I started community college while I was still active duty on terminal leave. I went on terminal leave Tuesday and I was already applying for college that next Monday.”

In 2010, Luke started college at San Antonio College as a Radio, Television and Broadcast major. But later, with the advice of one of her professors she decided to continue her education and earn her Bachelors in Mass Communications. Two years later La Traya graduated with an Associates of Art in Radio, Television and Film Broadcasting. She transferred to UMHB in 2012 to pursue a bachelor’s degree in Mass Communication.

As a part of her internship, Luke will work at the Salado Village Voice office on Fridays, fitting in the learning experience around summer classes and her regular work schedule. She will spend her internship interviewing local businesses around Salado and writing articles for the weekly edition.

“Everyone here is so great, I remember being nervous when I walked through the door for the first time but everyone is so nice they made me feel right at home,” Luke said. “I hope to learn as much as I can and use this experience to reinforce my on the job training.”

Shortstop Malory Schattle was named to the Texas Girls Coaches Association All State team. Schattle has played all three years at the Varsity level and has verbally committed to playing at University of Texas after she graduates in 2016.

She went 36-of-65 at the plate for the Lady Eagles, earning a .554 batting average. She knocked in 34 RBIs and had three homers on the year. She walked 24 times and struck out only eight times during the year. She had an on base percentage of .667. At the shortstop position, Schattle had a fielding percentage of .892.

She had been named to the All-District teams all three years that she has played and was Offensive MVP in 2014 and All District short stop this year.

“Malory is our team leader on and off the field,” Coach Kory Craddick says of his returning player. “Defensively, she leads our team from short-stop calling out all of our bunt defenses. At the beginning of the season she is in charge of teaching the new players our defensive calls and situations.”

Schattle, Craddick said, “is an outstanding team leader and goes above and beyond the call of duty. She stays late to work on her skills and fundamentals, and she is always there to lend a helping hand for her teammates.”

Forty players from around the state were named to the All State Team.

The TGCA also released its All State Academic Team, naming two Salado High graduates to the honor team: CeCe Cantu and Kristen Oakes.

Little, Wolf named to 2nd team All-State baseball squad

Two Salado Eagles were named to the Texas High School Baseball Coaches Association All State Team Second Team.

Pitcher Cody Wolf, who had a 6-2 record on the mound for Salado in nine starts, was named to the Second Team squad. He had six starts in district play with a 4-1 record.

Wolf had a .660 ERA, allowing 28 hits over 53 innings. Opponents scored 16 runs on Wolf, but only five of them were earned runs. Wolf struck out 71 batters, walked 13 and hit only six batters.

At the plate, Wolf batted .362 with an on-base percentage of .398 and a slugging percentage of .487. He had 29 hits and 25 RBIs.

Wolf also threw a complete game no-hitter against the Lampasas Badgers on March 24.

“I expect him to be dominant as a Senior and help lead a very good Senior class deep in the playoffs,” Coach Chad Krempin said of Wolf.

Wolf is a two-year starter. “Cody plays very hard and never stops working or trying to get better,” Krempin said, adding that Wolf “pitched well in every game we played. He generally threw in the mid-80s and has a really good breaking ball.”

Jacob Little, the offensive most valuable player for District 25AAAA, had a pretty good glove, too, at his position at second base. He was named to the All State Second Team at that position.

Little had a .940 fielding percentage for the year. On the year, Little had 84 total chances and converted 46 assists and made 33 put outs. He was also a part of nine double plays defensively and committed just five errors on the year.

Little had a .359 batting average with an on-base percentage of .438. He had a .679 slugging percentage on the year with 28 hits, including three homeruns. Little had 16 hits for extra bases, knocked in 23 runners and scored 24 runs. He struck out nine times.

Little was a two-year starter and saw some action at the varsity level as a sophomore as a pinch hitter.

“He developed as much as a player as anyone I’ve coached over his four years,” Krempin said of Little. “He had a tremendous work ethic from day to day.”

In his final year as an Eagle, Krempin said that Little “was a great example to the underclassmen on how to go about practicing the right way.”

In fact, “I had to pull the reigns back sometimes. He would jeopardize injury with the way he attacked practice.”

Little has great power and arm strength and will play baseball in college.

“I felt for Jacob because he was injured in the playoffs as well as Cody in a series of bad luck or I’m pretty confident we would have ended this year with a nice playoff run,” he added.

Salado won District 25AAAA but lost in the first round to Navarro.

Wolf is now a senior while Little has graduated from Salado High.

Economic DevelopmentFROM PAGE 1A

A project must also meet at least two of the following seven criteria to be considered for economic development incentives.

“1. are located in or substantially contribute to Designated Areas, Redevelopment Areas, or Target Areas;

2. result in at least 25,000 square feet of newly constructed facilities (at new or existing business locations);

3. result in at least $500,000 of new taxable appraised value to the tax rolls-

4. result in at least 50 new, permanent full-time jobs; ,

5. result in at least 10 new, permanent full-time jobs in Redevelopment Areas: or

6. Result in new minimum annual local sales tax of at least $50,000 annually’

7. Result in new minimum annual hotel motel tax of at least $100,000 annually; or in the case of a project to be located in a Redevelopment Area, a new minimum annual hotel motel tax of at least $25,000.”

Projects that meet those criteria plus the following additional criteria may be eligible for additional incentives: 1. The redevelopment or rehabilitation of building has been vacant for at least two years. 2. The project will create improvements in the Historic Downtown District. 3. Investment results in redevelopment or rehabilitation of an existing, declining building in a Redevelopment Area. 4. The investment will result in additional development in the surrounding area.”

The new policy lists 13 Chapter 380 Economic Development incentives:

- Expedited Plans Review and Permitting
- Small Business Development Center:
- Development Fee Waivers

- Land grant
- Facade improvement grants of $1,000 to $7,000 on a matching basis.

- Landscaping and irrigation grants of up to $2,500 on a matching basis.

- Sign improvement grants of up to $1,000 on a matching basis for replacement/refurbishment of dilapidated signs within the Strategic Investment Zone, Overlay District, I-35Corridor or on Main Street.

- Historic Preservation Tax Credits: The owner of a historic building can receive a federal income tax credit of 20 percent of the amount spent to rehabilitate a certified historic structure. There is also a 10 percent credit for older, non-historic buildings

- Asbestos survey/abatement grant of up to $1,000 on a matching basis.

- Environmental Protection Agency Brown-field incentives.

- Sales tax incentive rebates: Sales taxes can be rebated above the base year for business proposals which show the following standards: $50-99,999 above base, five years at 15 percent rebate; $100,000-$249,999 above base year, 5 years at 25 percent and $250,00 and above base year, five years at 25 percent.

- Hotel motel tax: The Village may “enter into Tourism Marketing Agreements with qualified hotels, motels, and bed and breakfasts that offer meeting space to accommodate groups of 25 or more persons and have 10 or more hotel rooms. Agreements will allow these facilities to reinvest a portion of the hotel/motel tax that is generated specifically by their facility to market their accommodations, meeting space, and other attractions. Agreements will specify that marketing plans must be approved by the Board of Aldermen.”

The thresholds for the generation of hotel/motel taxes and the percent of taxes rebates to the facility through the Tourism Marketing Agreement are these:

$100,000-274,999 above the base year in hotel occupancy taxes per year: 40 percent rebate in year one, 35 percent rebate in year two, 30 percent rebate in year three, 25 percent rebate in year four, 20 percent rebate in years five through seven and 15 percent rebate for years eight through 10.

$275,000 and more in hotel taxes above base year: 70 percent rebate in year one; 65 percent rebate in year two; 55 percent rebate in year three; 50 percent rebate in year four; 45 percent rebate in years five through seven and 40 percent rebate in years eight through 10.

For smaller properties located within the Redevelopment Area outlined by the Village, the following rebates are offered under the Tourism Marketing Agreement: $25,000-99,999 in hotel motel tax above base year; 30 percent rebate in year one; 25 percent rebate in year two; 20 percent rebate in years three through five, 15 percent rebate in years six through seven.

In addition to these incentives, the Village may participate with developers on major projects through public financing mechanisms; in particular Public Improvement Districts and Tax Increment Financing, both of which require a minimum capital investment of $15 million.

The final incentive for Economic Development is tax abatement, which was approved by aldermen unanimously under a separate resolution.

In addition to the target areas outlined under economic development, a project will be given priority consideration if it meets any of the following criteria: Located in or substantially contribute to Enterprise zones, designated areas; redevelopment areas; or target areas; Result in a development with little or no additional cost to the Village; Result in at least 25,000 square feet of newly constructed facilities (at new or existing business locations); Result in at least $500,000 of new taxable appraised value to the tax rolls; Result in at least 50 new, permanent jobs; result in at least 10 new, permanent jobs in Designated or Target Areas; Result in new minimum annual local sales tax of at least $50,000 annually; Result in new minimum annual hotel motel tax of at least $100,000 annually or Result in a calculated direct payback of 5 or less years. minimum capital investment of $15 million.

I-35 construction

stunned audience that the completion date was August 2016.

According to the TxDOT project website, the 3.33 mile expansion is a 920 workday project. Dave Swarthout, owner of Hairitage Barber Shop and a Chamber director, told the group this as he pointed out that the project website shows that more than 880 work days have been charged, or 95.65 percent of the work days for the contract. So far, 56.5 percent of the work has been completed by the contractor James Construction.

The project already exceeds the contract amount allocated for project engineering by more than $2 million and for construction engineering by more than by almost $1.5 million. To date, $36 million has been spent on construction, from the $76.2 million in the contract.

Jones said that change orders were being issued to James Construction to require that one section of the construction be completed at a time, beginning at the south end of the project. Those change orders are expected to take effect in July, Jones said.

In the meantime, another entrance ramp and exit ramp in Salado were closed this week, just north of Main Street.

The entrance ramp onto I-35 just north of Main Street was closed this week. This closure is described by public information specialist for the I-35 expansion as permanent. The exit ramp at FM 2484 was closed this week. This closure is slated to end on Dec. 31, according to the Central Texas I-35 Traveler closure listing.

Additionally, the northbound access road lanes just north of FM 2484 up to Amity Road have been closed for overnight closures June 23-26 for a short term project to repair the access road lanes.

TxDOT closed northbound mainlanes from FM 2268 to FM 2484 through Salado two nights (so far) this week for the construction of the median detour.

No official word on when the southbound lanes of the access road south of Thomas Arnold will be completed. No official word on when the northbound exit ramp for Thomas Arnold Rd. will be opened or the northbound entrance ramp north of Thomas Arnold Rd.

This summer or fall is likely to see the closure of the north end of Main Street for the construction of the underpass connecting Salado Plaza Dr. to the west-side access road and Williams Dr. Eng

No official word from TxDOT whether that part of the project will require the closure of the northbound exit just before north Main St. If that exit does close before the other northbound exits open up, then Salado will have two northbound exits: the Holland Rd./Salado exit which is immediately after the overpass for FM 2115 and the Main Street exit, which feeds directly into Main Street.

While TxDOT engineers say that they are shooting to have the project

Imprinting the West art exhibit on display at Bell County Museum through August 8

Imprinting the West: Manifest Destiny, Real and Imagined will be featured American art at the Bell County Museum in Belton.

The exhibit opened June 13 at the Bell County Museum and remain open through Aug. 8.

Throughout the nineteenth century as Americans pushed west toward the Pacific, they were fascinated by westward expansion in North America, according to Dr. Walker, who spoke about the exhibit at the opening reception.

Printed imagery - lithographs and engravings - played an important role in the dissemination of knowledge and understanding about the West and its inhabitants.

Visitors to this new exhibition will see 48 hand-colored engravings and lithographs that explore these depictions and the influence the artists had on the perception of the Wild West.

The Louisiana Purchase in 1803 set the stage for exploration, migration and settlement, in addition to struggle and conflict. Convinced that God wanted the country to extend to the Pacific Coast - the idea called "Manifest Destiny" -- scores of Americans, including painters and print-makers, moved west.

The westward expansion in the 19th century was closely intertwined with the experiences of the native peoples. The exhibition's artists, including George Catlin and Frederic Remington, sought to document the indigenous people of the west along with migration to the west. Artists often accompanied governmental geographical surveys and created images to illustrate official publications. Others sold engravings to popular periodicals, such as Harper's Weekly, or to the mass market. These lithographs and engravings informed the rest of America and the world about Native Americans and America's western landscapes and its natural resources.

Imprinting the West: Manifest Destiny, Real and Imagined is toured by ExhibitsUSA, a national program of Mid-America Arts Alliance, and curated by Dr. Randall Griffey, associate curator of modern American art at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.

Railroad & Heritage Museum to host summer learning workshops

The Railroad & Heritage Museum is the place to be for educational fun this summer! This July and August, the museum will host three learning workshops for interested children and adults. Topics covered will include model railroading, photography, and telegraphy. The cost is $20 per workshop and preregistration is required.

On Friday, July 10, join the Central Texas Area Model Railroaders for Model Railroading 101. Learn the ins and outs of this exciting hobby, master some of Centra-Mod's model train layouts, and complete a small modeling project to take home. This workshop is open to kids age 5-12 and will take place at the Moody Depot, located next door to the Railroad & Heritage Museum, from 9 a.m. – noon. To coincide with the current O. Winston Link railroad photography exhibit, Trains that Passed in the Night, the Museum will host a photography workshop on Saturday, July 18 from 2 p.m. – 5p.m. Photographer Angie McCue will teach participants the 10 Easy Steps to Great Photography, as well as share photography tools and tips for beginners and intermediates alike. This workshop is designed for aspiring photographers ages 14 and up (adults welcome). Participants must provide their own cameras and the workshop will focus on the Museum's railroad cars.

With school just around the corner, head back to the classroom on Friday, August 14 for the Railroad & Heritage Museum's Telegraph Workshop. Participants ages 10 and up (adults welcome) will discover the basics of Morse Code and build their own telegraph machines to take home, all while learning about this important historical technology. Workshop will be held from 9 a.m.-noon.

For more information or to register for any of the Summer Learning Workshops hosted by the Railroad & Heritage Museum, please call 254-298-5172 or visit the museum located in the Santa Fe Depot at 315 West Avenue B in downtown Temple.

I urge, then, first of all, that requests, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for everyone - for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness.

JERRY ADAMS

Funeral services for Jerry Adams, 72, of Salado, was held 11 a.m. on June 22, 2015, at the Dossman Funeral Home in Belton with Rev. Billy Barho and Rev. Bob Van Dyke officiating. Burial followed at the Rest Haven Cemetery.

The family received friends for visitation June 21 at the Dossman Funeral Home.

Adams died Wednesday, June 17, 2015, in a Temple Hospital.

He was born October 27, 1942, the son of A. M. (Johnny) Adams and Zelma Barnes Adams. He graduated from Salado High School. He married Debbie Ashworth in 1972.

Adams was a lifetime rancher in Salado, known as the Golf Cart Cowboy.

He served on the Salado School Board for many years serving as president for a term as well. He was a member of Victory Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife Debbie Adams of Salado, one son Jay Clayton Adams of Manor, mother Zelma Adams of Salado, sister Peggi Wilson and husband John of Salado, grandson Zachary Adams; nephew Trampas Wilson and niece Sommer Wilson and great nieces and nephews Tanner, Chase and Dax.

Memorials may be made to the Victory Baptist Church 13295 FM 2843, Salado, Texas 76571 ously. He graduated from Finley Engineering College with a degree in Architectural Engineering.

Anderson was a custom home builder in Wichita, Kansas before returning to Texas in 1978. Pursuing real estate development and other real estate related fields, Anderson settled on being an appraiser and remained one for 30 years.

He met his wife Bobi at Hyde Park Baptist Church in Austin. After marrying in 1994, they stayed in Austin until 2004 when they settled in Salado.

Anderson was an active member of First Baptist Church of Salado.

He is survived by his wife Bobi; three sons, Trey Blankenship and wife Katherine of Napa CA, Colin Blankenship of Austin and Preston Anderson and wife Coryn of Houston, and eight grandchildren. He is also survived by sisters Sherry Truett of Oklahoma, Candace Anderson of Austin and brother Andy Anderson of Lampasas.

Services will be at 10 a.m. June 26 at the Killeen Veteran's Cemetery. A life celebration will follow at the First Baptist Church at noon on June 26.

The family asks that in lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to the First Baptist Church of Salado Tomorrow Fund.

JUAN CASTRO

Texas Military Forces officials have released the name of a Soldier who died during a training accident at Fort Hood on June 17, 2015. The incident occurred at approximately 7:30 a.m. when four Soldiers from the Texas Army National Guard were involved in a single vehicle (HMMVV) rollover accident during their two-week annual training period.

Private First Class Juan Castro, 19, whose home of record is listed as San Antonio, joined the Texas Army National Guard in February of 2014 as a cavalry scout. He was assigned to B Troop 1-112th Cavalry Regiment, 72nd Infantry Brigade Combat Team, 36th Infantry Division, located in Bryan, Texas.

Castro's awards and decorations include the National Defense Service Medal and the Army Service Ribbon.

The three soldiers also involved in this training accident sustained non-life threatening injuries. Circumstances surrounding this incident remain under investigation.

SIDNEY A. BARHAM

Services for Sidney A. Barham were held June 20, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. at the 3C Cowboy Fellowship Church 16258 Gooseneck Road, Salado, TX with Ralph Barham officiating. Visitation was held at the church. Following the service, interment was 4:00 p.m. at Greenwood Cemetery 1665 N. Llano Street Fredericksburg, TX with military honors.

Sid was born on April 10, 1919 in Madden, Mississippi to Robert and Lillar Barham. He died on June 15, 2015 at his residence in Holland, TX; he was 96 years old.

Sid attended college in Decatur, MS where he studied electronics, then moved to California and worked at Convair Aviation. He married his hometown sweetheart, Bessie Bell while in California. He served in the Navy from 1944 – 1946. Afterwards, he began a career with the FAA (Federal Aviation Administration), being stationed in Del Rio and Rocksprings, TX. He retired in 1981 and moved to Fredericksburg, TX where he lived for 31 years before moving to Holland, TX in 2012.

Sid was a member of the First Baptist Church in Fredericksburg, TX and attended 3C Cowboy Fellowship Church in Salado. Survivors include a son, Ralph Barham of Lewisville, TX and two daughters, Brenda Merz of Holland, TX and Beverly Johnston of Texas City, TX. He has 7 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to 3C Cowboy Fellowship Building Fund. Broecker Funeral Home of Salado is in charge of services.

An Open Exchange of Ideas

The Front-Runner in Name Only

The last time Jeb Bush ran for office, it was 13 years ago. Barack Obama was serving in the Illinois state Senate. No one had heard of Obamacare or the tea party, and wouldn't for years. It was before the invasion of Iraq, before Hurricane Katrina, before the financial meltdown. We had just invaded Afghanistan, and Saddam Hussein still ruled Iraq. It was a political epoch ago.

If timing is everything in politics, Bush has, among other things, a timing problem. He had an exemplary record as a conservative reformer in Florida almost a decade ago, but the achievements and fights of the other Republican governors running for president have been the stuff of contemporary headlines. He is a gifted politician, but his father and brother preceded him to the presidency, giving his campaign an inevitable dynastic air as the vehicle of "the third Bush."

His fundraising, even if it falls short of the widely cited $100 million mark, has been prodigious. But there has been a stark enthusiasm gap between donors and actual voters. If the Republican nomination were going to be fought out exclusively in fundraisers held in corporate conference rooms and fancy homes, Bush would be winning in a rout. Instead, he is clustered with a few other top contenders, a front-runner in name only.

His freshly unveiled "Jeb!" logo might be more appropriately punctuated with a question mark, about whether he can excite Republican voters in a field that is as large and talented as any in memory.

The Mitt Romney path to the nomination is not available to him. Bush can't show up with a fundraising advantage, a professional operation and a resume, then expect to inexorably grind down all the other candidates. Romney could do that in 2012 against an unprepared Rick Perry, an undisciplined Newt Gingrich and an unfunded Rick Santorum. Bush is running against a field that has about a half-dozen candidates who would have been in the top tier last time around.

Romney won the nomination despite his Massachusetts health-care plan that was anathema to much of the party.

It's one thing to have a few heterodoxies, though; it's another to be defined by them. What most conservatives heard from Bush during the Obama years was his complaints about the GOP's tone, and his support for comprehensive immigration reform and Common Core. Those two issues have come up over and over again during the early phase of the campaign, and while Bush has adjusted his positions a little, he hasn't changed them.

Bush gave a spirited announcement speech to a boisterous crowd in Miami, the best public moment of his campaign so far. The party will need to know he's a fighter, and chiefly of the left and the media, not his own side. It will need to know that he has an agenda new and different from his brother, and much broader and more conservative than his famous stances on immigration and Common Core.

Bush is a genuinely accomplished executive and a creative policy wonk, with a natural sense of authority. He is a talented man, in the political fight of his life.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

We would like to thank and praise the Salado Community Chorus—a first time attendance for us while in Salado, this spring.

What a magnificent, uplifting, "uptown" performance.

Every segment seemed better than the previous-comparable to any New York event we have attended.

Of course, we especially enjoyed the military salute - we are ex army and air force.

When is the next performance?

Bravo to one and all!

Now is Not the Time to Block Defense Funding

It is time for the White House and Senate Democrats to stop playing politics with our defense budget and fund our Military. Recently, Senate Democrats backed their threats to block appropriations bills, therefore denying funding for the brave men and women who protect our great nation. Senate Minority Leader Harry Reid is leading this foolish stunt to wrest billions more for their failed social welfare programs and a wasteful bureaucracy. For the security of our nation, I challenge them to reconsider their motivations.

Our world is more dangerous, and the threats to our national security have increased with the rise of ISIS, Russia's attacks on democracy in Eastern Europe, Iran's continued press towards developing a nuclear weapon, and an increase in China's cyber attacks.

Our nation's security must be a top priority, yet the minority in the Senate along with President Obama, believe the time is right to alert our adversaries that we are not serious about defense and military strength by not funding our military.

In the House of Representatives, we are fighting to strengthen our national security, and to protect our military. My colleagues and I recently passed the National Defense Authorization Act and a Defense Appropriations Bill. These measures provide the military with everything they asked of us as they take the fight to our enemies. My colleagues and I fully appreciate how important these measures are to our military and the men and women we send into combat. I commend the Senate for passing their version of NDAA, and I strongly urge President Obama to sign NDAA when it reaches his desk, but without Defense Appropriations, sequestration kicks in, and our military suffers.

Sequestration could force the Army to increase troop reductions by an additional 25,000 soldiers next year alone. My colleagues and I in the House

One doesn't have to love change, but one must be willing to accept it. As much as people despise the thought that "Salado is going to change," it will. And, it is not all bad. It will get us out of a rut that is not working; it will give us a fresh start; and it will afford us the opportunity to re-evaluate our direction.

Dishing out Poverty Wages on Capitol Hill Lawmakers are shafting the underpaid workers who prepare their meals.

In 2008 Democratic Senator Dianne Feinstein declared: "There are parts of government that can be run like a business and should be run like a business."

For the first time, the Senate had voted to privatize the restaurants and other food services on the Hill. Sure enough, those dining spots now turn a profit, because they're being "run like a business" — specifically a business like McDonald's.

Restaurant Associates, the New York outfit that got the House and Senate food contract, profits by paying poverty-level wages and generally mistreating the cooks, wait staff, and other people who put the "service" in food service.

Wages are less than $11 an hour, well below the very expensive cost of living in the Washing-

A key Republican committee chairman, Representative Tom Graves, recently showed how much Congress cares about inequality by refusing even to consider requiring food service contractors to pay a living wage.

"It's really not within the scope of this committee to micromanage all contracts," the Georgia Republican sniffed.

Think of how that makes the Capitol dining staff feel. If I were Graves, from now on I wouldn't eat anywhere in the Capitol without taking a food taster with me.

Salado's Randolph represents Southeast Region on USSSA All American softball team

Salado Junior High student Piper Randolph has been selected by USSSA (United States Specialty Sports) as one of the top 15 female athletes to join the USA Elite Select, Southeast Region All American Girls FastPitch Softball Team. Randolph will represent the Southeast Region in the first annual All American Games held in Orlando, Florida July 13-16. The games will be televised on ESPN's Wild World of Sports.

Selection to the All American Team was announced live via an online selection show broadcast on www.ussalive.com on June 2, 2015.

One of eight softball regions in the United States, the Southeast Region is composed of girls from Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, and Tennessee. The top 15 players were selected based on tryouts in Texas, Alabama, and Arkansas. Players were evaluated by the National Scouting Report (NSR) (a highly revered high school and college recruiting organization that has been conducting evaluations for over 30 years), USSSA Pride, and the USA Select Committee. Selection was based on hitting, running speed, position work, and throwing speed/accuracy. The eight US regions will compete against each other in Orlando, Florida culminating in a championship game on July 16.

Dog Daze is a hit in Pace Park

The Chamber of Commerce hosted The Dog Daze of Summer June 20 at Salado's Pace Park. While some dogs leisurely strolled in the creek the Ft. Hood K9 demo team amazed the crowd with their "take down" technics and feats of discipline. The Ft. Hood Jazz band provided the music. Vendors sported their wares while food trucks provided treats for animals as well their humans.

want to preserve those jobs. Additionally, without passing the defense appropriations bill, the Army would be forced to cut services from Fort Hood's budget, resulting in the closing and/or reduction in dining room facilities, and family and childcare services, in addition to job cuts in the civilian workforce. This would have a devastating impact on the central Texas economy, let alone the lives of our friends and neighbors working at Ft. Hood. Yet Senate Democrats continue to block votes on any spending bills, including the critical House-passed defense bill. If Senator Reid derails efforts to pass defense appropriations in the Senate, or the White House vetoes final versions of this bill, they will put the security of our nation at risk. Worse yet, they will place the military in a position where it must send our brave warriors into combat without the resources they need to prevail. As a fiscal conservative, I welcome a thoughtful dialogue about reducing federal spending. But targeting the brave men and women of our military is the wrong approach. If they're successful, the consequence of the White House and Senate Democrat's political games is a weakened American position around the globe and reduced national security at home. For the preservation of our way of life and the safety of our children, we cannot allow that to come to pass. Rep. John Carter represents Texas District 31, which includes Fort Hood, the largest military installation in the free world. He serves as Chairman of the Homeland Security Subcommittee on Appropriations, is on the Subcommittee for Commerce, Justice and Science and the Defense Subcommittee.

Ladies Auxiliary tours Ft. Hood

Twenty two members and guests of the Salado Ladies Auxiliary took a guided tour of Ft. Hood on June 11. The tour included guided tours of the 1st Cavalry Division Horse Barn, Stables, Leather Workshop, Farrier Workshop, as well as the Ft. Hood Museum and Gift Shop.

The group enjoyed lunch at the Theodore Roosevelt Dining Facility and then toured the Air Assault Demonstration Field where training for air drops are conducted. The final test being a soldier successfully executing a 90 ft. drop from a helicopter.

The group ended their day on post with a tour of the Training Support Center. While there, the group experienced the Close Combat Tactical Trainer simulator where they were virtually placed in a battle situation. All the ladies and guests enjoyed the day and thanked the Ft. Hood soldiers for their dedication and service to our country.

Gaze, Peruse & Nosh Artist Reception, Food & Wine Pairing and Fashion Truck at Salado Wine Seller

Salado Wine Seller will host John Davis 6-9 p.m. July 2 to unveil the art that will hang at Salado Wine Seller and Salado Winery Co. until Oct. 4.

The art opening reception for John Davis will include a visit from the gnomadic fashion truck, and an extra special wine tasting paired with some food from Classic Events. The event promises to be a great summer evening filled with art, fashion, wine, food and of course, fun.

FIRST, THE ARTIST

Davis is a resident of Salado and friends with the owners. He was chosen to be featured in the winery gallery because, his art reflects the eclecticism of the new businesses and artists that are redefining Salado.

"English is my second language after Art," Davis admits. "I can express wordless ideas and places by creating them on a two-dimensional surface."

"The illusion of the multi dimensional world created on a flat plane is fascinating," he adds. "Depth with all its mystery is integral to my enthusiasm for creating and filling space with artful shapes."

Davis is inspired by such artists as Max Earnst, Claes Oldenburg and Silver Age Comic greats like James F. "Jim" Steranko, Jack Kirby and John Buscema. he even find inspiration in Dr. Seuss.

Influenced by Richard Scary, Mad Magazine and Science Fiction.

"My art has evolved into what I like to call high grade doodling," he says. "In creating a piece, I want to fill the canvas with imagery and action to draw viewers in for close inspection that requires more than one visit."

Davis works with pencil, pen, brushes, spray paint and collage. "Viewers are tasked to explore and discover personal messages via nostalgic icons of film, Americana or pop culture iconography," he said.

SECOND, THE FOOD

AND WINE PAIRING

The food will be prepared by Classic Catering. The chef and his staff has carefully crafted a menu to pair with select Salado Winery wines. Tickets are available for $24.95 at www.saladowinery.com.

The menu includes a new release, 2014 Salado Vineyard Sangiovese Rose which will debut at this event. This light summer wine has an orange citrus note and will be paired with Corn Cake sous vide pork belly, slow-poached quail egg, green tomato marmalade, and topped with American caviar

From the barrel, 2014 cabernet sauvignon from 3 Texans Vineyard will be previewed. "Taste this wine before it is bottled and tell us what you think.

If you enjoy it, we might even offer it to you at a special pre-sale price." It will be served with Masa Tostado 'churrasco style' double cooked brisket, pickled red onion, avocado kewpie mayo, and kimchi Brussel sprout.

Sweet Tweet muscato will be chilled and presented with Tart grilled peach, goat cheese-mascarpone 'cheese whiz', clover honey, and oregano.

For an additional $5, folks can partake in the food and wine pairing described above, and participate in a tasting of 2014 Tempranillo and 2014 Malbec grown in the 3 Texans vineyard at 6 pm. This tasting will lead by winemaker, June Ritterbusch and will demonstrate the differences in aging a wine in various oaks.

Last but not least, the gnomadic fashion truck will be on hand. What is the gnomadic Fashion? An online store plus Fashion Truck. Their treasures include handmade, fair trade, and socially responsible goods.

PALS brings Jack and the Beanstalk to Salado

The Public Arts League of Salado will bring San Antonio's premier Children's Theater to Salado for a free public performance of Jack and the Beanstalk 6 p.m. on June 27 at Tablerock.

The Magik Theater of San Antonio is known for creative performances designed to entertain both young people and adults.

The all ages show will show you what happens when Jack learns that a true friend is the greatest treasure in the world.

Would you trade your best friend for three magic beans? When Jack does, he gets high-altitude adventure and more gold than he could ever spend. Even so,

Jack is unhappy.

Don't miss the chance to bring this classic fairy tale to life for your students - follow the troupe as they climb up to the wondrous world of the beanstalk. Suitable for all ages.

Admission is free, a gift to the Village of Salado from PALS. Concessions will be available. The event is made possible through a grant from the Texas Commission on the Arts and the generous support of Tablerock.

Whiskey Myers bring their own brand of everyday soul to Johnny's Outback for a June 27 performance.

Whiskey Myers returns to Johnny's Outback Saturday night

Whiskey Myers will return to the stage at Johnny's Outback on June 27. Tickets are available in advance online for $20 per person and at the gate for $25 per person.

Their songs are stories, with characters and situations with which you can relate to the stories of celebration, of mourning, of trials and triumph.

Whiskey Myers has attracted a devoted army of outspoken fans who pack venues, sing the band's praises online, and continue to make them a growing word-of-mouth sensation.

The band will perform songs from their latest recording, Early Morning Shakes. Their latest full-length was recorded with noted producer Dave Cobb (whose credits include Jamey Johnson, Jason Isbell, and both Waylon and Shooter Jennings) and represents the culmination of years of dedication, experimentation, and refinement.

The album's 12 songs encompass a range of perspectives and emotions. As guitarist John Jeffers explains, "Staying true to ourselves and to our music has gotten us to the point we're at. We really wanted to continue on that same track."

The collaboration with Cobb became a vital partnership, essential to Early Morning Shakes' edgy yet accessible sound. "I have to credit Dave for creating a natural, relaxed recording atmosphere," says drummer Jeff Hogg. "It allowed us to be comfortable, creative, and to better express ourselves. Plus, his experience mixing country and rock in his production works perfectly for us."

"The coolest song we have ever done," beams lead singer and principal songwriter Cody Cannon about the title track.

Whiskey Myers' last record, Firewater, was released in the spring of 2011, and enjoyed a remarkable run on the Texas Music Charts that culminated with its third single "Anna Marie" reaching #1. "Our fans always tell us how much they get out of seeing us play," says Cannon, "but it's a two-way street: We get something, too. They inspire us to dedicate ourselves more and more to our music and our sound. And it sure feels like it's paying off."

The five members cut their teeth together, honing their chops side-by-side from an early age. Hailing from Neches, Texas, Cannon was given an acoustic guitar by his "wild-ass biker" (Cody's words) grandpa, and guitarist John Jeffers's dad taught them both the rudiments of the instrument. A job at a sporting goods store introduced Cannon to future Whiskey Myers lead guitarist Cody Tate, forming the songwriting core of the band. Upon moving to Tyler, Texas, they picked up drummer Jeff Hogg and enlisted Cannon's cousin Gary Brown on bass—even though he'd never played the instrument before.

In Whiskey Myers' world, nothing is off-limits. Nothing is too personal, too sensitive, or too controversial to embrace and explore. Theirs is a confidence born of a long-standing brotherhood—a closeness that few groups can rival. That closeness even extends to their road crew, whose first two members were a cousin and childhood friend of Cannon and Jeffers. "Well we all grew up together," bassist Brown explains. "We're two sets of cousins. Some of us have been friends since we were two or three years old."

Cannon picks up the thread immediately, adding "Plus, after six years together, you know each other through and through. We know who we are, and try our best to stay true to ourselves and to our music."
