Bell County Sheriff Eddy Lange staved off two opponents in the Republican Primary, earning 55.14 percent of the votes while Constable Rolly Correa defeated former Constable Roger Laird in the Precinct 2 race on March 1.

Neither Lange nor Correa will have a Democrat opponent in November.

Shay Luedecke will be the new County Tax Assessor-Collector after winning the Republican primary with 62.63% of the vote.

Ted Cruz had a good night in his home state, earning 30 delegates in his bid for the Republican Presidential nomination, tallying more than 1.2 million votes. Donald Trump followed with 752,334 votes for 17 delegates. Meanwhile on the Democrat side, Hillary Clinton earned 32 delegates with 918,491 votes to Bernie Sanders' 16 delegates with 467,641 votes.

U.S. Rep. John Carter defeated Mike Sweeney in the Republican Primary and will face Democrat challenger Mike Clark in November.

Nov. 5 Memorial to be dedicated March 11 in Killeen

Gov. Gregg Abbott, Senator John Cornyn and U.S. Rep. John Carter will be on hand for the dedication of the 5 November, 2009 Fort Hood Memorial at the Killeen Civic & Conference Center, 3601 S. W.S. Young Drive in Killeen.

Kelley began work on the idea shortly after the mass shooting in which 13 victims were killed and another 31 wounded.

Ground was broken some five years later in 2014 on the memorial which was designed by

Sheriff Eddy Lange

Constable Rolly Correa

crat Virginia 'Jennie Lou' Leeder in November.

At the state level, there will be run-offs for the Republicans for Judge Court of Criminal Appeals, Place 2 between Ray Wheless and Mary Lou Keel; Judge Court of Criminal Appeals Place 5 between Scott Walker and Brent Webster and for Railroad Commissioner between Gary Gates and Wayne Christian.

The only run-off election for Bell County Democrats is in the Railroad Commissioner race where Cody Garrett and Grady Yarbrough will face each other.

Early voting in the primary run-offs will be May 16-20 with the election day voting on May 24. The last day to register to vote in the primary run-offs in April 24.

Kelley. Kelley created a sculpture to honor each of the 13 victims killed in the shooting, using objects and symbols that were dear to them. He met with family members and gathered the mementos together before sculpting each into a memorial for the victim.

The sculptures sit on black granite columns around the perimeter of the memorial, which has a pyramid at its center with an American flag from its peak.

"It's been a labor of love," said Kelley. "Each sculpture represents an individual. Please go ahead and touch them. Eventually, the favorite places to be touched on the objects will become shiny."

Unlock Terrorist’s Phone

The FBI wants access to the iPhone of San Bernardino terrorist Syed Rizwan Farook, and Apple CEO Tim Cook is resisting and putting his refusal in apocalyptic terms. Should Apple comply with a judge’s order to help the FBI, we’re supposed to believe, it will have created the privacy equivalent of a doomsday device, making everyone vulnerable to the intrusions of government and depredations of hackers and criminals.

This is trite marketing -- only Apple can save us from Big Brother, and by the way, please keep buying our phones -- masquerading as bravery. In the San Bernardino case, one wonders whose privacy Apple thinks it’s protecting. As former prosecutor Andrew McCarthy notes, Farook is dead. There is no doubt that the government has probable cause to search his phone. And the phone in question didn’t even belong to him. It is the property of his former employer, the San Bernardino County Department of Public Health, which had the right to search it at will and is fine with the FBI gaining access to it.

Apple wants to give the impression that the key to Farook’s phone is the key to the kingdom, but it’s not so. As Timothy Lee explains on the website Vox, the FBI doesn’t need to defeat the encryption on Farook’s phone and thus, in theory, endanger the encryption on other phones. It just needs to get into the phone. For that, it needs to get past the first line of defense, the device’s passcode.

This is possible through what is called “brute force.” A robot can punch in every possible combination until the phone unlocks. Except the iPhone has security features to defeat anyone who doesn’t know the passcode. The FBI wants Apple to change the software on Farook’s phone so it can force the device open.

This isn’t Armageddon. As Lee writes, “Apple has tacitly admitted that it can modify the software on Farook’s iPhone to give the FBI access without damaging the security of anyone else’s iPhone.” No one is going to have his or her privacy compromised because the FBI, in this one instance, with heroic technological exertions, gets into a dead terrorist’s phone.

Apple’s position is basically, Don’t worry about ISIS, don’t worry about tracking down every possible lead in a terrorism case. Worry about what cooperating with the government might do to the company’s reputation, and about a parade of horrors that might ensue if we slide from here several miles down a slippery slope.

If Apple wants to avoid getting coerced by Congress into building a real “backdoor” to all its software, a much larger and more fraught proposition, it has embarked on a foolish course by choosing such an unsympathetic test case. The chances are high that Apple will be seen to be acting unreasonably -- since it is acting unreasonably.

Apple’s contribution to American life is a product that is almost impossible to live without. The company is synonymous with sleek and cool, and has an enormous reservoir of goodwill. It shouldn’t diminish it by staking out an indefensible position and elevating it to faux high principle. Unlock Syed Rizwan Farook’s phone.

Both ladies will share an overview of 2016 Chamber of Commerce goals and events. In addition, they will discuss current and future plans to promote tourism. All Ladies Auxiliary members and guests are invited to attend.

The Salado Ladies Auxiliary strives to provide events and activities which enhance, improve and promote the community of Salado. The organization also offers programs and activities that are educational and inspiational as well as social.

HPU honors four students in Christian ethics and theology

Four Howard Payne University students were honored as Currie-Strickland Scholars in Christian Ethics and Theology at the university's ninth annual Currie-Strickland Distinguished Lectures in Christian Ethics event earlier this month. Those honored include Shaefer Church, senior Bible major from Farmington, New Mexico; Cheney Cover, junior cross-cultural studies major from Troup; J.T. Hurt, a 2015 HPU alumnus and current graduate student from Brownwood; and Tom Kyle, junior cross-cultural studies major from Salado.

Dr. Donnie Auvenshine, professor of Christian studies and dean of the School of Christian Studies, presented the awards.

"At these lectures, we honor these good students," said Dr. Auvenshine.

Each year, the honorees are selected based on an evaluation of achievement in their classes and on the ways that they have excelled in their thinking in the fields of Christian ethics and theology. This year, each student received a certificate and three books.

The four students plan to pursue ministry-related goals after graduation. Church hopes to go to seminary and then overseas to be a missionary. Cover wants to minister to refugees in an urban environment. Hurt is currently a student in the Master of Arts in Youth Ministry program at HPU and plans to pursue youth ministry. Kyle plans to attend the Graduate Institute of Applied Linguistics in Dallas to study translation and linguistics. He also wants to work overseas with Wycliffe Bible Translators.

IHOP's annual Pancake Day raises money March 8 for Shriners Hospital for Children

IHOP® Restaurants is celebrating its 11th annual National Pancake Day®, when participating restaurants will offer each guest dining in one free short stack of buttermilk pancakes in an effort to raise $3.5 million for Shriners Hospitals for Children.

National Pancake Day will be 7 a.m.- 7 p.m. March 8. The Temple IHOP® is one of the participating restaurants. Local Shriners will be on hand to greet diners. Diners can make donations to the Shriners Hospitals for Children at IHOP® that day.

On National Pancake Day, guests dining in participating restaurants can order one free short stack of buttermilk pancakes in the hope that they will make a voluntary donation to Shriners Hospitals for Children. To find a local IHOP restaurant or to donate online, visit www.ihoppancakeday.com.

IHOP Restaurants served over 6 million free pancakes on National Pancake Day 2015 and pancake lovers donated $3.5 million to children's charities.

All of the free pancakes served on National Pancake Day 2015 would create a stack nearly 19 miles high.

Since the inception of National Pancake Day in 2006, IHOP Restaurants have raised $20 million to support charities in the local communities in which they operate.

This year, IHOP has partnered with Snapchat to develop Sponsored Geofilters for customers dining at IHOP on National Pancake Day. Geofilters are fun and engaging location-based art that can be added to photo and video Snaps. Snapchatters will be able to reveal the creative overlays while they're in-restaurant.

Lady Eagles still perfect in District soccer

Salado Lady Eagles won an intense match against their rivals Liberty Hill Lady Panthers 1-0 Feb. 26 on the road. The win improves the Lady Eagles' record to 16-1 and 8-0 in district, securing a playoff spot for the Lady Eagles. Despite the win, Salado fell to #2 in the most recent Texas Girls Coaches Association poll, behind Giddings with an 18-0-1 record.

Jessica Ringstaff scored the only goal in the game with an assist from forward Sara Wilkerson. Defender Morgan Bird and Goalkeeper Sam Isbell helped to keep the Lady Panthers from reaching the net.

"This game felt like a playoff game, with the atmosphere and the intensity," Isbell said. "I knew when we were getting on the bus, it would be a good game, and we wanted to win this game for everyone who is supporting us. I walked on the field knowing that I would have to be the best I could be for my team. We could have played better, but we worked together and got the win. My team works hard every practice for games like that."

The JV girls fell 4-0 to the Liberty Hill JV squad at home Feb. 25. Outstanding players of the game were Andrea Martinez--Defensive Midfielder; Ansley Flowers--Forward; Abby Quick--Midfielder; and Tabitha Mazo--Midfielder.

With two walks, an error and just one hit in the fourth, Salado was able to score four runs. Drew Dobbins had an RBI single in the inning.

Lorena had two hits in the first, but scored six runs thanks to two walks, a hit batter, a dropped third strike and an error.

Jacob Spivey tripled to deep right and scored on a grounder to give the Leopards a 7-0 lead.

Lorena loaded the bases in the fifth, but the Eagles got the final out without another run scoring.

Preston Payne and Kade Maedgen both doubled in the third inning, but Maedgen's put two runners across home plate as the Eagles scored six runs in the inning with just two hits.

Payne scored again in the fourth inning after reaching on a fielder's choice. He scored on an error.

Salado took the lead in the fifth, with two outs on the board as the first two batters of the frame grounded out. Ellis reached when he was hit by the pitcher and stole second base. Payne was also hit by the pitcher and both runners scored on

Eagles in second in soccer

Salado Eagles are in second place in district soccer following a 1-2 loss on the road to the Liberty Hill Panthers on Feb. 26.

The Eagles will face Florence on the road at 5:30 p.m. March 4. Salado carries a record of 11-5 and 4-2 in district into the match.

Goalkeeper Trey Shepard had four saves in the game, but the relentless Liberty Hill attack resulted in two goals.

Forward Costas Loullis scored the one goal for Salado with an assist from outside midfielder John Dawson.

"We fought hard and played well," Dawson said, "but in the end Liberty Hill worked hard to score the second goal. We couldn't recover from the second goal."

Liberty Hill 2

Salado JV Boys lost a home game to the Liberty Hill Panthers 2-1 on Feb. 25.

The Panthers scored first on a through ball and a defensive breakdown.

With 15 minutes remaining in the second half, Liberty Hill scored the second goal of the evening putting them on top.

"The boys played well and had more opportunities than Liberty Hill but a few simple mistakes on defense, and the inability to finish up top left the Eagles in the loser's bracket for the evening," Coach Earl Bragg said.

#DocumentSalado art exhibit open artist reception on March 6

An Artist Reception for Jessica Flynn will be held 7-9 p.m. on March 6 at Salado Winery & Salado Wine Seller at 841 N. Main Street. The event marks the opening for #DocumentSalado at Salado Wine Seller.

Flynn collected pictures of Salado for one year and has not only compiled them into a book, but has used them to create more masterpieces. She asks everyone to bring “something broken – humorous, significant, ironic, whateverrrrrr, just bring it. I’m going to collect it over the course of the show at Salado Wine Seller, break it some more and make another art piece out of our collective brokenness at the 2016 Edgy Art Show this coming spring. Especially at this point in our community’s story, it could do us all good to see something beautiful come from broken, chaotic, worn out, seemingly random.”

The artist says of the exhibit, “I love that Thoreau says “it’s not what you look at that matters, it’s what you see.” How I see is the greatest strength I bring to the work that I do. This also means it’s the biggest strength I can offer to our community. The 365 images that make up #documentsalado are a glimpse of how I see you, Salado. From the light to the art to the construction mess to the everyday views of local characters, this is what caught my eye as I did real life in our little Village over the past year.”

Each image was shot from an iPhone “No big cameras! That was my one rule. That and actually start and finish 365 images” says Flynn, then tagged and posted on social media so others could contribute as well. You can view the original project by following @jessiflynn on instagram or by searching the #documentsalado hashtag.

Wildflower Weekend celebrates diverse art, artists along with Texas Beer and Wines Salado’s Wildflower Weekend includes art, Texas craft beers, Texas produced wines and live music. Kicking off the third annual event is the Wildflower Pub Crawl on April 1.

Wildflower Pub Crawl

The Wildflower Pub Crawl standard ticket includes a passport, collectible stadium cup and a 12 oz fill of the featured beer at each of five stops for $19.95.

The premium ticket adds a sixth stop and a limited edition, hand-blown glass mug from Salado Glassworks to the standard ticket package for $59.95

Each stop on the Wildflower Pub Crawl features a different Texas craft beer. Tickets are limited and the event is for adults 21 and over only. Reserve your ticket at salado.com/events.

Saturday the Wildflower Weekend features a variety of art, food and wine events across the village. The Texas Wine & Rogue Art Fest, The Wildflower Art Fair & Festival and the Edgy Live Art Competition give family friendly opportunities to meet artists, purchase art, sample Texas wines, listen to great music and eat some great food. Admission is free to all.

Edgy Live Art Competition

The third Edgy Live Art Competition will be held from 11 a.m. - 3 p.m. at 2 Peddler’s Alley, next to Salado Glassworks. Featured artists will create works of art as they compete for your vote. Admission is free for the family friendly event. Voting tickets are $10 or 3 for $20. Each voting ticket enters you into the drawing for your favorite artist work.

Wildflower Art Fair and Festival

The Wildflower Art Fair and Festival is open from Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday from noon - 4 p.m. on the grounds of the Salado Civic Center at 230 North Main Street. This year marks the sixteenth year for this event.

Stroll through vendors selling handcrafted art from across the state; woodworking, fine jewelry, original paintings, photography and food.

Texas Wine & Rogue Art Fest

The Texas Wine & rogue Art Fest comes alive on the grounds of the Salado Winery Company and Salado Wine Seller, 841 N. Main St. Hours are Saturday Noon - 5 p.m. and Sunday noon - 4 p.m. Admission is free, tickets for the wine tasting are $10 for six and include a souvenir wine glass. Additional tickets are $5 for 4.

Enjoy a wonderful afternoon, or two, of wine tasting and art. Featuring twenty Texas wineries, a tremendous viewing of rogue artists and their works from around Texas, and, of course, delectable foods.

Children and well-behaved pets on leashes are allowed.

Contract Bridge

By Steve Becker

Only rarely does declarer elect to play a game or slam contract in a 4-3 trump fit. This is as it should be, since holding only seven trumps to the opponents' six is not the type of trump superiority one yearns for at a high-level contract.

Normally such contracts, which carry with them the inherent danger of losing control of the trump suit, are avoided by finding a longer trump suit or by playing in notrump. However, there are times when there is no better alternative than to choose a 4-3 trump fit -- as in the present case.

Contracts that are based on a 4-3 fit often require special handling to compensate for the trump deficiency, and this is where South fell from grace.

South dealer.

North-South vulnerable.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1♥	1♠	2♦	Pass
3♦	Pass	3♥	Pass
4♥

Opening lead — king of spades.

West started with the K-A of spades and continued with the queen. South ruffed and played three rounds of trumps. When the opposing trumps turned out to be divided 4-2 instead of 3-3, he began to play diamonds. West ruffed the third diamond with his remaining trump and cached the 10-3 of spades to defeat the contract two tricks. Declarer erred when he trumped the third round of spades. By doing so, he put himself in a position where any but a 3-3 heart division would endanger the contract. Instead, South should have discarded a club on the third spade in order to retain full control whether the trumps were divided 4-2 or 3-3.

No return by West could then have hurt declarer. Another spade would be trumped high in dummy as South kept all four trumps in his hand, while a diamond, club or heart return would allow him to win, draw trumps and collect the 10 tricks he had started with.
