Art-filled weekend is here in Salado

From one end of town to the other, Salado will be bustling with art events this weekend, from traditional to edgy to rogue.

WILDFLOWER ART SHOW

Artists and artisans from Texas and throughout the Southwest will show their works on the grounds of the Salado Civic Center on Main Street during the 15th Annual Wildflower Art Show April 2-3.

The show will open 9 a.m.-5 p.m. April 2 and 10 a.m.-4 p.m. March 3. Admission is free. There will be music, food and drinks in addition to more than two dozen artists showing their works.

Works will feature oil, acrylics, watercolors, pastels, and mixed media including woodwork, sculpture, jewelry, glassworks, metal work and handmade clothing.

TEXAS WINE AND ROGUE ART FEST

Enjoy wine, food, art, and the outdoors during the weekend of Saturday, April 2 and Sunday, April 3. You'll find the charming Village of Salado filled with folks sipping wine, browsing art and nibbling on the best food at the 8th annual Texas Wine and Rogue Art Fest, the biggest wine festival between Austin and Grapevine.

The 2016 festival will include 21 wineries and vineyards pouring nearly 100 different Texas wines, alongside 30 booths featuring art, delectable foods, and handmade goods. The festival will feature wineries from all across the state, including Florence, Waco, Fredericksburg, Marble Falls, Hye, Pittsburgh and Lubbock. Wines vary from dry Mouvédre Rosés and Texas favorites Tempranillo and Malbec to sweet peach wine and muscato.

If you're hungry, the festival is hosting several food trucks, including Fire Street Pizza, recent winner of the Temple Battle of the Food Trucks, In Hog Heaven who specializes in whimsically named pork sandwiches, El Paisa #2, a local Salado favorite taco truck, and Southern Belle Ice House snow cones who sell both treats for the kids and wine-flavored snow cones for adults. Foodies will also enjoy experiencing Texas-based food from Sweet B's Candy, Spicewood Food Company, Chef Flaco's Salsa, Haute Goat Creamer, and iJerky Guy. The full list of participants is available at www.saladowinefestival.com.

"I wanted to attract a different type of artist, so I named it 'Rogue' as in the artists are going rogue," June Ritterbusch, owner and winemaker, explains, "We are always searching for unusual artists and this year we have found some. These Texas wineries are rogue entrepreneurs as well, and I think all the wine and art folks are going to create a great experience."

The festival will be held on the grounds of Salado Winery & Salado Wine Seller at 841 N. Main St., Salado, rain or shine. Families are welcome.

Admission is free and $10 buys six wine tasting tickets and souvenir glass, with additional tasting tickets available to purchase.

EDGY ART SHOW

On the southside of town, the art will come with a little more edge to it.

The Third Annual Edgy Art Show will showcase a half dozen artists on April 2 as they create unique pieces during that morning and afternoon centered around a theme. "They'll learn what the theme is just 24 hours before they set up and begin work that Saturday," said Jennifer McFarland, volunteer chairman.

This year's show will be held at Peddler's Alley off of Main Street and Royal in downtown Salado.

The active art competition will include these entrants: John Davis and Jayanna Killingsworth (from the 112 Collective on Royal), Jessica Flynn, Michael Pritchett and Jennifer Estes.

Just 24 hours before the beginning of the Edgy Art Show, the competing artists will be given this year's theme. Then they will each have from 7 a.m. to 9 a.m. on April 2 to prepare for working on their pieces of art. Beginning at 9 a.m., the artists will work on their original piece of art, which must be completed by 3 p.m.

The show will be open to the public beginning at 11 a.m. so that they can watch as the artists each create their pieces based on the theme. There is no charge to come and watch the artists as they work, but you may want to participate by voting for your favorite artist and having a chance to win their piece of art.

While the artists are working, the Fort Hood Army Jazz band will provide live music throughout the day.

The public will vote for their favorite artist or piece of art beginning at 11 a.m. with voting completed by 3 p.m. when the artworks are completed. You can vote in the show by purchasing a $5 ticket or three tickets for $10. There is no limit to the number of tickets you can purchase.

Each ticket is worth one vote, but is entered into two separate raffles. The first raffle will be an Experience Salado basket valued at $350 that includes The "Experience Salado" Blow Your Own Flower for two from Salado Glassworks, Ro Shaw's Clay Studio pottery date night for two, Sirrill Gallery Cork & Create for two, Salado Wine Seller tasting and tour for two, and a $50 gift certificate from The Range Restaurant.

Also, each artist will have their original piece raffled off from among the votes cast in their favor.

Fire departments from around the county responded to an 18-wheeler crash and fire on I-35 at Thomas Arnold on March 24. On March 29, TXDOT closed the interstate northbound mainlanes to allow the contractor to do emergency repairs that include moving concrete barriers. (PHOTO BY TIM FLEISCHER)

After another big rig crash in Salado, emergency work done on mainlanes

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

A Fedex truck with two trailers ran into the concrete barriers of the southbound mainlanes of I-35 early on March 24, shutting down mainlanes in both directions for more than nine hours.

Travelers were advised to seek alternative routes through Salado, something that has become quite frequent in the past several weeks.

Heavy 18-wheeler trucks sought routes through Salado that included otherwise quiet neighborhood streets, including Willow Creek where a tractor-trailer found itself stuck. West Village Road was overrun with the big rigs trying to cross the narrow bridge spanning a wet weather creek.

"That bridge was not made for these heavy trucks," one resident told me. "Every time there is an accident or a closing, though, they end up finding their way here."

First responders from Salado Volunteer Fire Department, Salado Police Department and Bell County Constable were joined by Belton Fire Department, Southwest Bell VFD, Bartlett VFD, Constable Rolly Correa who was helping Police Chief Jack Hensely to direct traffic on the alternate routes reported that there was ammunition involved in the accident.

"That popping has been going on since I got here at 3 a.m.," Correa told this reporter. "You might want to duck when you hear it again."

Fortunately, there were no reports of injury to any of the first responders. The truck driver had minor injuries.

Just days after the accident, TXDOT called for an emergency closure of

I-35 mainlanes through Salado overnight March 29-30.

"The contractor will be moving concrete barriers, replacing a short section of cracked pavement and adding new striping," Jodi Wheatley, TXDOT Public Information Officer said.

Whether the barriers are being moved to allow for more room on the mainlanes or because recent accidents have moved the barriers is not yet clear. No indication of why the barriers are being moved was given by TXDOT in making the announcement.

During the closure on March 29, northbound traffic was detoured to the northbound frontage road before FM 2268 and allowed to reenter the I-35 mainlanes north of FM 2484.

During the closure, the Thomas Arnold bridge was allowed to remain open to let traffic cross over I-35. The FM 2484 overpass was closed during the closure to allow the northbound flow of traffic to proceed unimpeded.

Salado Village Voice asked TXDOT through its public information office if trucks would be limited to the right hand lane through the construction area of Salado and what steps TXDOT is taking to protect the safety of the traveling public. As of presstime, we have not received a response.

The speed limit through Salado is reduced to 60 MPH and in the alternate route at Salado Plaza, it is reduced to 50 MPH.

On March 25, following the accident, DPS Troopers were seen monitoring traffic and speed along I-35 but none have been seen doing so since then.

President Obama’s Che Moment

A news photo at Revolution Square caught Obama standing together with American and Cuban officials, with an enormous mural of the iconic revolutionary Che Guevara looming over his shoulder on the adjacent Ministry of the Interior building.

Che is, of course, ubiquitous on dorm-room walls and T-shirts in the United States, and a hero of the Cuban revolution. He also was a coldblooded killer who set up the Cuban gulag and presided over summary executions of political prisoners (trials were, per Che, “an archaic bourgeois detail”). No doubt, he would have been astonished at the Yanqui president coming to Revolution Square to pay his respects -- and exceedingly pleased.

President Obama’s trip is self-consciously historic. It ensures that the first visit to Cuba by an American president in almost 90 years will be part of Obama’s legacy, and seeks to make his opening to Cuba, announced in December 2014, irreversible. If that means extending credibility and a financial lifeline to a Castro regime that has no intention of reforming, so be it.

The regime made it clear that it wouldn’t bother with maintaining even a pretense of relaxing its grip with the arrest of protesters at a march of the dissident group Ladies in White while President Obama was en route to the country.

There is no sign of greater openness in Cuba since President Obama forged his break with long-standing U.S. policy. Political arrests have accelerated. There were more than 8,000 in 2015, four times as many as in 2010. The exodus of desperate Cubans to the United States has picked up. And the country still ranks below Zimbabwe and Iran on Internet connectivity. But Obama’s opening has produced a financial windfall for the regime. The Cuban military occupies the commanding heights of the economy and controls the tourism business, which has been thriving with the influx of American tourists. Starwood Hotels and Resorts just got special permission from the U.S. Treasury to operate three hotels in Havana, in a boost, not for the free market, but for the Cuban government.

If Cuba were a repressive, small-minded military dictatorship of the right, Obama’s visit and accommodationist attitude wouldn’t be considered so broad-minded. But a patina of revolutionary romance, embodied by that image of Che looking down on President Obama, still hangs over Cuba. It makes its human-rights abuses, theft and lies an afterthought, or even excusable, for the American left.

After the Cuban missile crisis, Che said that in the event of a U.S. attack, “if the rockets had remained, we would have used them all and directed them against the very heart of the United States, including New York, in our defense against aggression.” It would have been beyond his imagining that so many decades later, with the revolutionary regime cash-strapped and decrepit, the imperialist Goliath would come bearing gifts, and asking for nothing substantial in return, except a line in President Obama’s Wikipedia entry.

Concerned Citizens have their say

To the Editor:

The political season is upon us with all its “sound and fury, signifying nothing”, and freaky presidential “debates” show that even with the best outcome U.S. citizens are in a lot of trouble. Name calling and vulgar insinuations offer no solutions to rarely referenced problems, while issues like the economy, jobs, healthcare, education, decaying infrastructure and the environment fall by the wayside. Perhaps this is diversion by design. Through it candidates can avoid revealing their ignorance or illegitimate allegiances.

On the economy, a release of previously “confidential” documents reveals that guilty government officials, bankers, and Wall Streeters have avoided prosecution relating to the economic collapse of 2008. In fact, many have been rewarded for destroying the world’s economies, including that of the U.S., thereby insuring that another crash is just a matter of time.

Candidates exhibit no in depth knowledge of the pharmaceutical industry or how the multinational drug manufacturing cartel and healthcare entities “rip off” U. S. consumers. They simply parrot the message of those sugar daddies to feed the rhetoric of pompous pundits like the McLaughlin Group and others who ignorantly spew the deceptive pabulum dished out by drug industry lobbyists and their bought and paid for “experts”.

A noted economist once said that corporate problems begin at the top. He might have added that they then infect everything they touch - and, in today’s world, corporations touch everything. Healthcare is a prime example. I have been intimately familiar with its aspects for more than fifty years, and today’s lack of honesty, ethics, and competence is abysmal. The patient has become a crop to be harvested - whether individually or via his insurer.

Your Voice

Letters to the Editor

Graphic and personal examples illustrate this:

Recently I astounded an area hospital’s employees by calling about prescription prices in front of the doctor. The intent was to prove my point about prescription price variables. I cold called two “big box” stores for their price to fill a prescription. One quoted more than $200 and the other more than $300. Afterwards, the latter gladly filled the Rx for the $44 allowed by my drug card - and why not? The pharmacy’s ingredient cost was less than $10.

Medical billings follow suit. A local hospital complex billed almost $150 for a routine nurse administered injection of a drug costing about 50 cents. Justification for more than $127 was described as a “Clinical support visit with (Doctor’s name)”. Also, more than $550 was billed for an electronic transmission to validate that an offsite monitor was working. Justification for that billing was described as a “Hospital encounter with (Doctor’s name)”. But - there was no “Clinical support visit...” or “Hospital encounter...” with either MD. These and similar extravagant billings to individuals and insurers, including Medicare, can greatly contribute to the excessive and increasing costs of healthcare in the U.S.

The political value of belligerently vocalized, obscene references to candidates’ anatomies and resurrection of decades old, irrelevant, out of context statements pales when compared to issues that challenge the U.S. In assessing this country’s politically impacted future, John Fogerty said it best...”There’s a bad moon on the rise.”

To the Editor:

At the March 3, 2016 Aldermen meeting, I signed up to speak to the Mayor and Aldermen during citizen’s comments. My goal was (and still is) to say THANK YOU to The Mayor and Aldermen FOR ALL THEY ARE DOING! My statement was not prepared in advance, I simply spoke from the heart.

I said to the Council, that I appreciate your commitment to your position. It seems that it is human nature to complain about something when you don’t like what someone is doing but it is more rare to stand up in support and appreciate someone’s efforts, whether you are in total agreement or not. I may not always completely agree with the decisions our council makes; it may not be moving along as fast as I wish it were; BUT, they are all volunteers giving their time and energy to help this Village move forward. It may be an inch at a time or even a foot... but it’s forward movement!

Change is a given. Control and shaping that change is an option. And I truly appreciate that the council is doing just that; Shaping our future. And I want them to know there are many folks out there that are in support of their efforts. And it is important that they stay diligent in helping this Village grow responsibly; setting us all up for success whether we are tourism driven, retail driven, or service driven. And together we will all celebrate our blossoming future! And that is something that makes us all proud of the community of Salado.

Sincerely,

Claire J

Mitch McConnell Is a Supreme Hypocrite

THE PRESIDENT’S RESPONSIBILITY TO APPOINT JUDGES ISN’T VOIDED IN AN ELECTION YEAR.

Antonin Scalia is gone. The nastiest and noisiest of right wingers on the Supreme Court is dead.

But in a blatantly partisan ploy to prevent President Barack Obama from nominating a successor to Scalia, Senate Republican leader Mitch McConnell has cited a brand new historical precedent dictating that presidents in the last year of their term don’t name new justices to the high court.

“Therefore,” McConnell babbled, “this vacancy should not be filled until we have a new president.”

What a silly old squirrel McConnell is. Article II of the U.S. Constitution plainly states that the president, with the “advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, [and] judges of the Supreme Court.”

Jim Hightower

Note that the Constitution says the president “shall” do this — as a duty to the nation.

Nothing in the founding document suggests that this responsibility is voided in an election year. In fact, every single election-year vacancy in the last 116 years has been filled. McConnell’s assertion is bogus — and silly. History and the Constitution clearly back Obama.

Ironically, Scalia himself would have nailed McConnell for such a slapstick political perversion of plain language in our founding document. He practiced what he called “originalism” in his official judgments, insisting that the Constitution must be interpreted only by the words in it — and only by the original meaning those words had for the founders when they wrote them.

McConnell’s squirrely stalling is as ridiculous as it is shameful. It’s also totally hypocritical, since the Kentucky Republican himself voted in February 1988 to confirm a Supreme Court nominee put forth by Ronald Reagan — in the last year of his presidency.

German migration to Texas 1844-1847

The German interest group of the Central Texas Genealogical Society will host a book talk by the German author Barbara Ortwein from noon -2 p.m. March 31 in the meeting room of West Waco Library and Genealogy Center.

The historical novel is about the migration of the Germans to Texas from 1844 to 1847 when the Adelsverein or Society for the Protection of German Immigrants in Texas, organized by a group of German noblemen, transported more than 7,000 Germans from the overcrowded rural area of Germany to Texas.

Jacksons celebrate 50th anniversary

The family of Donnie and Linda Jackson cordially invite you to celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary 3-5:30 p.m. April 3 during a come and go reception at the Cedar Valley Baptist Church, 12237 FM 2843. The Jacksons request no gifts. Your presence is their only request.

Linda Wiseman of Florence married Donnie Jackson of Salado at Cedar Valley Baptist Church on March 14, 1966, officiated by L.M. Lawson

The young couple had to speed their plans up as Donnie was being drafted into the Army during the Vietnam War. He graduated basic training on March 12 and the couple married two days later. Linda was a student at Killeen Beauty College at the time and made the arrangements for the wedding, which entailed sewing all of the dresses for the wedding party, including her own.

After the honeymoon, Donnie was stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, where he was joined by his new wife. He was stationed in Germany as a replacement for troops rotating to Vietnam. Linda joined him there and they lived with a German family. While stationed in Germany, they welcomed the birth of their first child.

After Donnie's service, they returned to Texas and Donnie worked for a short time for 7-11, followed by an eight-year stint with Hett Distributions, where he became the national operations manager.

The Jacksons returned to their roots in central Texas and were able to purchase a convenience store in Salado. They reopened the store as Country Boy Food Mart, which they owned and operated for 21 years. They raised their family of three in the business. They served together in Salado through multiple roles, such as, youth baseball coach, team mom, school board member, school fundraisers, church leaders and many others.

After selling Country Boy's in 1997, Donnie continues with ranching at a greater pace and Linda was employed by the United Postal Service as a mail carrier and sub clerk for 17 years. Both are now retired and enjoy their work in the church in which they were married, as well as their children and grandchildren.

The Jacksons' children are Melinda Jackson Dunnahoo and husband Matt of Salado, Donnie Van Jackson and wife Loretta Shelton Jackson of Salado and Brent Lee Jackson and wife Annika Bergman

NOW

Jackson of Leander.

Grandchildren include Cortney Dunnahoo Bruce and husband Bobby, Mindi Dunnahoo Michael and husband Danny, Kristen Dunnahoo, Ryan Dunnahoo, Lauren (Giniewicz) Marichalar and husband Marcial, Coby Giniewicz, Sara Jackson, Seth Jackson, Zane Jackson, Hayden Jackson and Grace Jackson.

They are expecting two great-grandchildren -- one boy and one girl -- this summer.

Lions accepting donations for Creek cleanup

The Salado Lions Club will be at various locations throughout the village, 10 a.m.- 2 p.m. April 2 to accept donations for the low water crossing Salado Creek cleanup effort.

The Lions Club Members will be in their yellow vest around the village collecting donations for this effort. The Lions motto is "WE SERVE". They will accept any donation amount no matter how small, even the coins in the console of your vehicle.

"Please help in this effort, the creek belongs to all of us in Salado. An anonymous donor has pledged $10,000 in matching funds. Through other private donations, we are well on our way to match that generous donation," said Lion David Swarthout.

Overtime win Eagles beat Smithville, 4-3, face Fredericksburg

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Sterling Curnutt's goal with 3:45 left in the second overtime period gave the Salado Eagles the edge they needed to beat the Smithville Tigers 4-3 on March 24 in the bi-district round of the UIL 4A soccer playoffs.

Salado will face Fredericksburg, the winner of District 28-4A, at 8 p.m. April 1 at Burnet Bulldog Field in the area round of the playoffs. The field is located at 1401 N. Main St. in Burnet. Fredericksburg had a bye in the first round of the playoffs.

Smithville's Fernando Maldonado scored a goal in the 81st minute of the match to tie the game at 3-3, shortly after Curnutt's goal for Salado in the 80th minute of the match.

Smithville Goalkeeper Jacob Pryor kept the Tigers in the match in the first half, defending back-to-back shots on goal at the seventh minute of the match and again with 11 minutes left to play in the first period and 4:45 left in the first period.

Salado took an early lead with 36:21 left in the first period on a goal by Constantinos Loullis.

After Smithville tied the match, Armando Castillo took an assist from Manuel Magadan to score with 2:52 left in the first period for a 2-1 lead.

Wendy Sarinana tied the game at 2-2 in the 64th minute of the match.

The Eagles will play the 12-6-3 Fredericksburg Billy Goats.

Lady Eagles start district with 2 losses

By TIM FLEISCHER
EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

Salado Lady Eagles suffered two district losses last week and will travel to

Salado 3
Lampasas 11
Lampasas Lady Badgers pummeled Salado's top two pitchers for 10 hits and 11 runs in their 11-3 district 25-4A win March 22. The road loss dropped Salado's record to 1-1 in district.

Bailey Tindell led the Lady Eagles at the plate with a solo homerun in the second inning and a single in the fourth. She scored on a sacrifice fly to center by Abbie James. Lindy Martin reached on an error by Badger first baseman Kamri Corbin and scored on a single to right by Malory Schattle.

By then, though, most of the damage had been done by the Lady Badger bats. Kloe Corbin hit a three-run homerun in the first. Singles by Kyndal Moyer, Sloan Johnson, and Natalie Denoso contributed to a four-run second inning for Lampasas.

Lampasas base runner Kloe Corbin interferes with Lady Eagle second baseman Meagan Hill's ability to throw the ball to the catcher to put the runner going home out. It didn't matter much as the Lady Badgers won 11-3 on March 24. (PHOTO BY TIM FLEISCHER)

The Lady Badger punctuated the win with four more runs in the sixth. Kloe Corbin hit an RBI single and Monica Garza knocked in three runners with a double to center field.

Salado had seven hits, including two singles by Payton Dreitz and singles by Martin and Rebecca Dockray.

Meagan Hill was issued the loss on the mound for Salado. She faced 12 batters, giving up four hits and allowing seven runs to score, six of them earned. She walked three batters.

Pitching in relief, Tindell face 24 batters, striking out seven. She allowed six hits, walked three and allowed four earned runs.

lost to Liberty Hill 8-3 in a March 24 home game, being out-hit seven to five.

Kinsey Kuhlmann led off the game with a double to center, stretching it to third on an errant throw. Sam Barnett walked to put runners at the corners and a passed ball allowed Kuhlmann to score and Barnett to go to second. Williamson walked to again put runners on the corners before Bailey Tindell struck out clean-up batter Jessika Truax. Barnett scored on a passed ball giving the Lady Panthers a 2-0 advantage.

Salado loaded the bases with no outs in the bottom of the first, but Nicole Theim was able to pitch her way out of trouble with a strikeout, flyout and groundout. Theim struck out 10 Salado batters before Amber Wiggins came to pitch the final two innings, striking out three and allowing one run.

Liberty Hill added three runs in the second. Kandyn Faurie singled. Tindell forced the next two batters to groundout on the first pitch for two outs. Kuhlmann was hit by a pitch to put runners on the corners when Barnett hit a two RBI double. She scored on a single by Truax.

Faurie scored again in the third by hitting a double, stealing third and going home on a single by Megan Huppee, giving the Lady Panthers a 6-0 lead.

The Lady Eagles closed the game some in the fifth inning. Rebecca Dockray singled with one out and went to second on a walk issued to Jenna Calder. Payton Dreitz drove in both runners with a single to deep left, but was left stranded on second.

Liberty Hill scored two more runs in the sixth inning. Salado scored its final run in the seventh inning. Calder walked and reached third on a passed ball. She scored when Madeline Murray hit a shot to deep right and an error by the right fielder allowed Murray to go to third.

Tindell threw 139 pitches, facing 35 batters. She struck out five batters, allowed seven hits and eight runs, four of them earned runs in a losing mound appearance.

Theim got the win on the mound, facing 23 batters. She struck out 10, allowed three hits and two earned runs. Wiggins, pitching in relief, allowed one run on two hits and struck out three. She walked two.

Salado Lady Eagles unleashed a torrent of shots on the La Grange Lady Leopards, scoring 10 goals and shutting out the fourth place team from District 26-4A on March 24.

Salado will play the Wimberley Lady Texans at 6 p.m. April 1 at Burnet Bulldog Field, 1401 N. Main St. in Burnet.

Wimberly handed the Lady Eagles their single loss of the season, beating Salado in their own tournament and forcing the Lady Eagles to settle for third place in January.

Last year, Salado and Wimberley faced each other in the Area Round of the playoffs with Salado beating Wimberley 1-0 last year.

Meanwhile, the #1 ranked Giddings Lady Buffaloes will face the Fredericksburg Billies this week following the Lady Buffs' 5-1 over Lampasas in the bi-district round last week. Lampasas Lady Badgers were the fourth place team from District 25-4A. Lampasas lost to Salado 9-0 and 6-1 in their two district matches.

This week's games could set up a clash between the top two ranked teams in state in the Regional Quarterfinal Round of the playoffs.

The Lady Eagles took a handful of minutes to start scoring with China Saxton kicking the first of her three goals into the net on an assist from Annie Ewton just five minutes into regulation.

The La Grange goalkeeper defending two quick shots at the goal at the 8 minute mark before Saxton score the second of her goals on and in-bounds throw at 30:14 left in the first period.

La Grange blocked another shot on the goal, this time on a header by Sara Wilkerson with 26:31 left in the first period.

first to give Salado a commanding 3-0 lead.

Katey connected with Sara Wilkerson on a corner kick that Wilkerson put in the net.

With 2:40 left in the first, Jessica Ringstaff scored a goal to bring the first half score to 5-0.

Salado added five more in the second half.

Annie Ewton scored a goal early in the period, followed by the third goal of Saxton's hat trick. Saxton scored on an assist from Wilkerson to bring the score to 7-0.

Wilkerson scored her second goal of the match on a corner kick from Ashlen LaCanne.

Brileigh Cole gave an assist to Julie Craig to bring the score to 9-0.

Taylor Schoenrock scored the final goal of the game on an assist from Gema Vitolas.

The Lady Eagles are now 21-1-0 on the year, having gone 12-0 in district play.

Salado Eagles forced both of their District 25-4A into Mercy Rule losses last week to open district play with two wins. They will travel to Burnet to face the Bulldogs at 7 p.m. April 1.

Liberty Hill 0
Eagles 11

Salado Eagles shut out the Liberty Hill Panthers 11-0 March 24 in a home district game.

The Eagles took a 4-0 lead in the first inning with singles by Preston Payne, Cody Wolf and Ryan Dunnahoo. Grant Taylor hit a two-run homer before the third out was registered.

Salado added two more in the second, Phillip Ellis singled and stole second, scoring on a double by Payne. Payne went to third on a ground out, scoring on a fielding error,

The Eagles scored five runs in the fourth. Ellis singled with one out and Payne was hit by a pitch. Drew Dobbins singled to load the bases and the runners advanced on a balk. Cody Wolff singled to drive in a run and Dobbins scored on the attempted throw. Garrett Lightfoot hit the ball to left and an error by the leftfield allowed him to reach second and Wolf to score. Lightfoot scored on an error by the right fielder that allowed Grant Taylor to go to first.

Lampasas 1

The Salado Eagles got out of their three-game slump in a big way, scoring 19 runs on 14 hits against the Lampasas Badgers

Meanwhile Drew Dobbins and Peyton Kyburz combined efforts on the mound to give up no hits and just one run in the 19-1 District 25-4A opener March 22 on the road.

The win improves Salado's record to 10-9 and 1-0 in district.

The Eagles scored one run in the first without the benefit of a hit, but the bats came alive in the second when Salado scored seven runs, topped by a grand slam by Grant Taylor with two outs and the bases loaded. He cleared Dobbins and Cody Wolf, who reached on singles and Ryan Dunnahoo who reached on a walk to load the bases.

Earlier Ryan Oakes singled and Phillip Ellis reached on an error while Preston Payne was hit by the pitcher to load the bases with one out.

Salado added six runs in the third inning with a single by Ellis, doubles by Dobbins and Wolf and a triple by Taylor.

Dunnahoo and Ellis singled and scored in the fifth while Garrett Lightfoot and Taylor doubled and scored and Payne hit a two-run homerun.

Lampasas' only score was the result of a walk, an error and a dropped third strike in the second inning.

On the mound, Dobbins struck out four and walked three to earn the win. Kyburz struck out two and walked one.

Barrow Brewing Company opens its doors on Royal Street April 1

Springhouse

Hardly a day has gone by in the past several months that Graydon Hill hasn't been asked the same question:

"When are you going to open."

After more than a year since he and wife K.D. bought the old Guest-Sanford Granary on Royal Street in downtown Salado, they have an answer: April 1.

Barrow Brewing Co. will have a soft opening on April 1, coinciding with the Salado Pub Crawl that night. While Barrow Brewing is not a part of the Pub Crawl, they invite patrons to come by and try some of the four brews that will be on tap.

Additionally, Korean Kravings will have food available on the grounds of the brewery on April 1. For the rest of the opening weekend, local food truck Hecho en Queso will be on hand selling delicious Tex-Mex food.

A formal Grand Opening will follow this summer.

Initially, Barrow Brewing will offer four very different brews:

Evil Catfish IPA, named in honor of the missing magical catfish of Sirena that was stolen last year, has a nice bitterness to it. But it is not one that will punch you in the face.

Ski Boat Blonde, Graydon says, is a perfect brew for a warm day at the lake.

Tipsy Vicar Stout is an Irish-English style stout with plenty of body and a creamy head to it.

784 is a Belgian-style witte (Wheat) beer that takes its name from the number of Saladoans who voted in favor of the sale of beer and wine.

The Hills in 2014 put together a petition to bring the local measure before voters and saw that it was overwhelmingly approved.

This allowed them to Graydon Hill at the bar of Barrow Brewing Co., which will open April 1.

move forward with their plans of purchasing the Guest-Sanford Granary on Royal Street to build Barrow Brewing Co.

"Hill was taken," Graydon says of the name, "so we went with my middle name. We figured there wasn't much of a chance of that name already being taken."

After months of moving walls, installing refrigeration, installing plumbing and gas, the 15-barrel tanks arrived.

Hill began the first batch of brews on March 13, utilizing some of the 8,000 lbs. of malt delivered to the location in February.

J. Graydon Brown, a consulting brewer, has been on hand to help fine-tune the recipes and scale them from 20 gallons home brew recipes to the 465 gallon commercial tanks.

With four fermenters dominating the center of the old granary, you will be able to enjoy tasting brews made just a few feet from where you will sit at a beautiful solid-wood bar that required the help of a few friends to install.

Later in the year, you may find Barrow brews at your local bar, grocery store, convenience store or restaurant.

Cans have been put on order, Hill says, and Barrow Brewing Co. will begin local distribution of their products.

"It will be a truckload when it comes," Hill said.

Upcoming events at Barrow Brewing include hosting DAM Sandwiches April 22-23, hosting the Ultra 520K Endurance camp April 28-30 and hosting a lecture on the Salado salamander in late May.

For information about events and brews at Barrow Brewing Co., visit their website, barrowbrewing.com.

Salado Village Artists host V. Vaughan painting workshop

Salado Village Artists will sponsor a painting workshop with V. Vaughan on April 8-9 at the Village Art Center on the grounds of the Salado Civic Center.

Member or not, artist or not, everyone is welcomed. Vaughn is known for explaining color and concept to where beginner to advanced artists remain engaged.

The workshop is $120 for one and a half days with lunch on April 9. Act now as space is limited.

To find out more information, visit www.saladovillageartists.com and click on workshops.

V...is for "Virginia" Vaughan.

An impressionist oil painter, Vaughan has studied with the best: Ray Vinnella, Kevin Macpherson, Ann Templeton, Kathryn Stats and Carolyn Anderson. Preferring plein air painting, she now paints on location all across America. "My favorite subjects are wild places and around the countryside near America's small farms. I completed 365 daily small works depicting my family's "Last Year on the Farm". The paintings were featured at various museums and venues, and received great reviews. See exhibit schedule and all 365 works on the web site, along with Vaughan's field notes from each canvas.

Recently Vaughan's paintings have been winning awards across America. Her paintings have begun to be acquired by museums and numerous collectors. (see info below). She was a finalist for Texas State Artist designation. (2010).

V...Vaughan spent many years as a graphic designer/art director/illustrator, working in advertising and winning Addy Awards. Her clients included Samsung, The Lady Bird Johnson Wildflower Center, and Harcourt Publishing.

V...Vaughan Arts grew through RockSports Inc. who still features V... Vaughan's colorful designs in national catalogs and websites.

For over 20 years Vaughan has been a part-time high school art instructor, currently teaching at Hyde Park High School in Austin, where her students have won many awards. She also teaches painting workshops all across America. (...and New Zealand in 2015).

"I paint because it's the best way I know how to communicate, study and observe God's creative work, and to think His thoughts after Him," she said.

return a spade to establish West's suit. Then, if West started with more than four spades and also the ace of hearts, you will go down.

Once you reach this point in your considerations, you might see the advantage of leading the queen (or jack) of hearts at trick two instead of taking an immediate diamond finesse. Indeed, this play should virtually assure the contract.

West is the dangerous opponent, but he can be disarmed by leading the queen of hearts before you do anything else. If he has the ace and takes it, you intend to duck the spade return and win the next spade.

Now when you take the diamond finesse, you are on safe ground. If the finesse loses, either East will not have a spade to return (because he started with only three of them), or East will lead a spade (because he started with four of them), in which case the contract is safe.

Of course, if West does not take the first heart, you can then try the diamond finesse with impunity and finish with at least nine tricks. Either way, the contract is assured by leading a heart first.

Texas Indigo is a protected non-venomous serpent

Ophidiophobia, which is the technical term for the fear of snakes, is a common ailment that many people possess. Of course, there are different levels of this fear, and even people who are not absolutely terrified of snakes can be frightened by all black serpents, especially when those serpents are among the largest snake species found in North America.

The Texas Indigo Snake (Drymarchon corais erebennus) is a large non-venomous serpent, although its size and coloration can intimidate even the most avid herpetologist. In both length and weight, it is one of the largest species of harmless snake in the state, with adults reaching a maximum recorded length of eight feet four and one quarter inches and weighing between four and five pounds. However, most adults are smaller, only averaging between 5 ½ and 6 ½ feet in total length. As with the closely related Eastern Indigo snake of Florida, adults of the Texas species appear to be all-black at first glance. Only with a closer inspection is it revealed that rather than being all-black, the front half of the body is mottled with dark brown while along the rear half of the body it actually displays varying shades of blue-black (or indigo). It is this indigo coloration that gives this animal its name-sake.

Wild About Texas

Although this species is commonly known as the Texas Indigo snake, its known range extends deep into the country of Mexico, with only the northern portion of its range extending into this state. It is found primarily in the mesquite-infested grassland habitat that makes up the Tamaulipan eco-region of south Texas, although it can be found as far north and west as the southern edge of the Edwards Plateau. It is a common sight near Del Rio in Val Verde county, while it has recently been documented from the town of Sonora in Sutton county. That particular animal was brought to the San Angelo Nature Center by Texas Parks and Wildlife and was measured at seven feet four inches in length. Unfortunately, this animal succumbed to a shot in the head with a pellet gun by a fearful resident that was apparently unaware of the species protected status in the state of Texas. It is one of a few serpents that enjoy a certain amount of protection, for by law, it is illegal to harm or kill Texas Indigo snakes.

Many snake species can be somewhat prey specific when it comes to feeding, however, the Texas Indigo snake definitely does not fall into that category. It will feed on just about any vertebrate animal that it can subdue with its powerful jaws, for unlike many other ophidians that must rely on constriction or venom to obtain their prey, this species relies on sheer strength. Prey items that have been recorded include toads, frogs, salamanders, lizards, turtles, birds, small mammals, and other snakes. One specimen alone had three mice, two Mexican Burrowing toads, and two juvenile snapping turtles in its stomach contents. Even venomous snakes such as the Western Diamondback Rattlesnake are not safe, as many are preyed upon by Indigo snakes. Indigos are not totally immune to rattlesnake venom as are the kingsnakes, but apparently have adapted a high degree of resistance to it.

Like many other harmless colubrids found in this state, Texas Indigo snakes are egglayers, and after a short courtship and mating period in the late winter and early spring, the eggs, numbering as few as three and as many as a dozen, are deposited in an underground burrow around 30 days later to incubate until hatching, generally sometime in the early summer. Juveniles are capable of fending for themselves from hatching, and must do so as they receive no protection from their parents. In fact, the young must be wary of adults for fear of becoming prey items to larger specimens.

Texas Indigo snakes are diurnal during their active seasons and are quite an impressive sight when observed in the wild. Many ranchers in south Texas are aware of their propensity of feeding on rattlesnakes, and although that is not their primary prey, that fact alone has probably spared many Indigo snakes from demise from a man-made weapon. Although they are offered protection from collection and killing by state authorities, habitat destruction is the most detrimental factor that this species faces.
