Salado ISD learns of recognized rating

Salado ISD administrators learned last week that the district has been fully accredited by the Texas Education Agency and that Salado High School is a Recognized Campus, based on the Academic Excellence Indicator System (AEIS).

"Considering the increased enrollment we have had in the past year, the teachers and administrators have done a terrific job in achieving this status," said Supt. Steven Ervin. "I have no doubt that both campuses will be recognized next year."

To achieve a Recognized rating by TEA, a school campus or district must the following criteria:

- At least 75 percent passing each subject area of the Texas Assessment of Academic Skills of all students and each student group.
- Dropout rate of 3.5 percent or less of all students and each student group for 1995-96.

- At least 94 percent attendance rate for students in grades 1-12 during 1995-96.

Additional performance requirements for Recognized rating is that for each TAAS subject area below 80 percent passing (all students and each student group), actual change between 1997 and 1996 TAAS met or exceeded the change needed to reach 90 percent within five years.

Salado High School had an attendance rate in 1995-96 of 96.1 percent with 59,419 total days present.

The High School also had no dropouts in 1995-96, compared with 3 dropouts in 1994-95.

The TAAS test is given to students in grades 3-8 and 10th grade exit level.

Back to school Aug. 14

Salado ISD administrators have enrolled 869 students to-date for the 1997-98 school year, up from 822 students the last day of the 1996-97 school year. School starts Aug. 14 at 8 a.m.

Enrollment at each campus is 440 students at Thomas Arnold, up from 427 at end of school; and 429 at the high school, up from 395 at the end of school.

Two new teaching positions have been added to the staff. The high school has a new business teacher and the elementary school has a new reading teacher position.

Students and parents are encouraged to attend a back-to-school open houses at both campuses 4-6 p.m. Aug. 13.

The open houses will give students a chance to bring their school supplies, see their rooms and meet their teachers.

Salado students will be greeted by several new teachers when they return for class Aug. 14.

New teachers include these:

The walking bridge was installed July 29 to much anticipation. The iron bridge was transported to the site by an 18-wheeler, lifted by crane and secured to its place at Campbell's Branch on Main St. Saladoans of all ages watched as workers anchored the bridge in place. Work on the walkway continues after a short recess for the Art Fair. (top photo by Egon Friedrich, photo at left by Tim Fleischer)

Funeral services held for Mrs. Robertson

Private funeral services for Mrs. Sterling C. Lucile Robertson were held at the Robertson Family Cemetery in Salado Aug. 1.

Mrs. Robertson passed away at her residence, the Robertson Plantation, at the age of 92.

A Bell County native, Mrs. Robertson was an active member of the Sterling C. Robertson chapter of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas, and the Betty Martin chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Her interest in history led her to found the Central Texas Area Museum located on Main St. Salado in 1959.

The Central Texas Area Museum is sponsor of the Annual Scottish Games and Gathering of the Clans, which marks its 37th year in November. The Museum also sponsors Christmas by Candlelight in Old Salado, and the Reader's and Writer's Roundtable, among other events.

In addition to her tireless dedication to the Museum, Mrs. Robertson was an organizer and president of the Antique Glass Club of Temple, served on the board of advisers of KNCT at Central Texas College and a member of the Temple Federation of Women's Clubs.

She was presented in 1990 with a medal from the Cultural and Historical Resources Commission of the state of

FEDERAL DEATH TAX SHOULD BE BURIED

Central Texans have a saying that you're only guaranteed two things in life — death and taxes.

Congress can't do much about death.

But it can do something about taxes — specifically correcting a provision in the tax code called the "death tax."

Death taxes, also known as inheritance or estate taxes, are the portion of assets Uncle Sam takes when a person dies.

Most of us never want to think about losing a loved one. We sure don't want to be worrying about tax formulas and how deep the tax bite will be.

The fact is these death taxes end the lives of many small businesses and family farms.

To satisfy the tax man, surviving family members are forced to sell-off property and assets. Money that would be better spent buying equipment or land is instead sent to Washington.

Because of the death tax, jobs are destroyed and families lose farms and businesses that loved ones built.

I believe that is wrong and it is a waste.

That is why I fought to include a family-friendly provision in the tax break bill passed by Congress.

Currently only $600,000 of an estate is exempt from the federal death tax.

In the bill passed by Congress, the exemption would be increased to $1 million by 2007.

Although that is a good start, I don't believe the exemption was put into place soon enough to help family farms and businesses.

Instead I supported accelerating the time it takes to reach a $1.3 million exemption for family-owned businesses and farms.

Under the plan I pushed and which was accepted by Congress, the $1.3 million level would be in force by 1998, nearly a decade sooner.

That is ten years when more family-owned farms and businesses could remain in the hands of heirs.

Keeping Central Texas families on the farm, running the ranch or managing the firm is a top priority and putting the death tax on life-support is one way to reach that goal.

Engineer Jim Cowan has special place in heart for Salado: bridge is proof of it

You may recall that in last week's column we were wishing, among other things, that the highway department would be able to get our historic walk bridge in place by the Art Fair weekend.

With the ink barely dry on that edition of the Village Voice, along came a caravan of law enforcement and highway department folks guiding the bridge along I-35's frontage road from Belton. It took the crew most of that day to get the green-span in place and does it ever look great!

What we in Salado should do now is to show our appreciation to Bell County's highway engineer Jim Cowan. It was Jim who arranged for the funding, from discretionary sources within the Department of Transportation's budget, that allowed crews to prepare the site for the bridge, move it and set it in place. He also funded the sidewalks along Main Street that have been needed for years.

Engineer Cowan could have spent that money on projects in Killeen or Belton or Temple

Off the Record

by Ken Clapp

- but he has a special place in his heart for Salado.

Perhaps the Chamber of Commerce could honor Jim at the next annual banquet. And if some of the naysayers who nonsensically blasted the bridge project when it was in the proposal stage - would admit that they might have been mistaken - then we will have taken some long strides towards restoring our slightly faded reputation as an optimistic and "gung-ho" community.

Anyway - to Jim Cowan and his hard working highway crew, we say "Well Done and Thanks from all of us here in the Village of Salado!"

ART FAIR FUTURE

The Thirty First Annual Salado Art Fair is now history. The number attending; profits realized; evaluation by artists and vendors and the general assessment of the overall Art Fair as compared to previous years is yet to be determined.

Some few have grumped around saying the Fair is dwindling in popularity; volunteers harder to get each year; crowds not as large or as enthusiastic as in past years.

This is a normal post-fair reaction but what is really needed after a brief rest (and cooling off) period, is to objectively review this year's fair compared to the past several years and then if there is a need to improve - go ahead and do so - but without finger pointing or the traditional irascibility that a few of our petty-pals are wont to demonstrate when given half a chance.

The Annual Art Fair is needed as the prime source of revenue for the Chamber of Commerce. Without these funds the chamber would have to forgo many civic duties that they are forced to carry out due to our not having a village government.

Whatever changes might be necessary to keep the Art Fair

U.S. SENATOR
KAY BAILEY HUTCHISON

NATIONAL GUARD FITS THE BILL

"A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed." — Amendment II to the U.S. Constitution ratified on December 15, 1791

The fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 radically changed America's defense needs. This brought about a reexamination of our national spending priorities. As we try to balance the budget, we must make better use of scarce resources and seek greater value for every dollar spent. Accordingly, Congress has supported the Defense Department's efforts to reduce its size prudently and address changed security threats.

The Defense Department's force structure now is roughly 30 percent smaller than it was in the 1980s. Its budget has also declined to about 60 percent (in real terms) of its peak in 1985. We have reduced our military forces to the lowest levels since just before the outbreak of World War II.

One of the little-noticed implications of this changed defense landscape is the increased reliance we now put on the National Guard.

Our eight National Guard divisions are an integral part of America's defense readiness. A recent study of Texas' 49th Armored Division by the Institute for Defense Analysis concluded that it could mobilize, train and be ready for deployment in little more than 90 days.

This is the kind of essential support that makes it possible to downsize our active-duty force without compromising readiness or national security.

Dollar for dollar, the National Guard is one of the best defense investments we can make. In fighting for full funding for the National Guard in next year's defense bill, I pointed out to my Senate colleagues that the Army National Guard trains its recruits at only 20 percent of the cost of training a regular Army soldier. That's a savings no one can afford to ignore.

The administration's requested defense budget for next year would have severely cut funding for the National Guard. But in July, the Senate voted to restore critical funding for the National Guard (as well as reserve programs). Historically, with the exception of the period of the Cold War, the United States has not maintained a large, standing defense force. We have relied instead on the National Guard and reserve programs.

It would be shortsighted to gut our reserve capabilities at the same time we are dramatically downsizing the active force.

going strong, should be done at once, in order to keep this traditional event in place and the Chamber solvent.

RUMOR CORRECT

The rumor that Brookshire Brothers have dropped plans to erect a gasoline kiosk just west of their store, where they planned to sell top grade fuel at cut rate prices - is true!

The electronic survey showed a positive result but personal phone calls and letters tipped the decision-scales as top company brass decided they didn't need any added headaches so soon after opening their new grocery branch.

Our bet is that sooner or later the pumps will be installed and locals can save a trip to Belton to buy gas at a proper price, assuming the Brookshire chain really gets (and stays) competitive.

DEVILISH PLAN

For years the private employment agencies in concert with major business giants and many conservative lawmakers have schemed to change the status of the American worker from a traditional employee, loyally associated for life with a given company, to that of either a temporary worker or an independent contractor.

Reason is simple, albeit cruel and mercilessly profiteering. If a person is secured from a temporary employment agency or can be listed as an "independent contractor," the worker does not go on the "hiring" company's payroll which means there is no health insurance to pay, no retirement plan to eat away profits, no workers' compensation in case of an accident, no unemployment insurance should the economy sour and no fooling around with arbitration rights or a forum to secure justice when the employee is maltreated.

The employer does not even have to pay his share of the social security and medicare payment to the feds.

Most companies, until recent times, have felt a loyalty to their workers and would not consider denying them a decent wage with special benefits in order to have a loyal and productive workforce. Morale and lifetime job security were high which in turn increased productivity.

Today, thanks to hostile takeovers and mergers that toady only to quick profits and downsizing, the worker is the last to be considered and the first to be dropped.

And finally, the overseas movement of business operations, like the Nike Shoe Company for example, that moved to a third world area where they can pay pennies an hour to children who produce play shoes selling for over a hundred dollars a pair.

Result? - profits in the billions and American workers out in the cold.

Now we see the final act in this obscene drama to drive the American workforce over the edge and make second class citizens out of them. In the current tax and spend package that passed congress last week, is a greatly enhanced and broadened definition of the term "independent contractor" which could disenfranchise millions of workers, deny them benefits and further increase the value of profit bloated major companies. Microsoft and Pacific Bell are two giants that have been pushing for the new terminology thus allowing them to reduce the number of traditional employees. Bill Gates just can't seem to amass enough billions to satisfy his needs - reckon?

Clinton with all his faults, scars, warts and applied denigration --mostly deserved-- would do well to knock this provision out of the tax bill through a line item veto.

In doing so he could at least leave office with the knowledge that he stopped some of the harm being done to the American workforce by greedy companies that care nothing for their workers; sneer at loyalty; plunder worker retirement funds when they merge and laugh at a tax system that allows them to "loop-hole" their fair share while the rest of us pay and pay.

That's -30-

Elementary and middle school youth have an excellent opportunity to learn about common safety hazards and how to avoid them at the Safety Day Camp scheduled for Aug. 16 in Temple. The event is being held at the Texas Early Day Tractor and Engine Association grounds on Eberhardt Road. Registration begins at 8 a.m. and general sessions on electrical safety and fire safety start promptly at 9 a.m.

Registration fees for 8- to 13-year-old participants are $5 per person which includes lunch, snacks, a t-shirt and bag of safety items. All interested youth are urged to contact the Bell County Extension Office at 1-800-460-2355, Ext. 5305 to preregister for the safety camp by Aug. 1.

The Farm Safety Camp is sponsored by Progressive Farmer Magazine and eight national sponsors. Local sponsors include the Texas Early Day Tractor and Engine Association, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in Bell, Coryell, McLennan, Falls and Milam counties and the City of Temple.

General sessions will offer demonstrations and hands-on activities for youth participants on electrical and fire safety and traffic and tractor safety. Afternoon sessions will be divided into three different interest tracks focusing on safety in the community, the home and the farm. Topics include water safety, use of 9-1-1, bicycle safety, and use of small motors and equipment like lawn mowers and edgers.

Each year more than 600,000 children are admitted to hospitals with injuries. The Safety Day Camp provides area youth with an opportunity to learn about practical safety procedures in a fun way. This is one of the more than 125 safety camps nation wide being sponsored by Progressive Farmer Magazine.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion, national origin or disability.

James & Jo Griffitt to celebrate 50 years

James and Jo Griffitt will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception at The Carriage House Aug. 23.

Jyl and Randy Cain of San Antonio, and Jan and Robbie Middleton, of Belton, invite friends to the Golden Wedding Anniversary of their parents, James and Jo Griffitt, of Salado. The Griffitts were married on August 24, 1947.

The celebration will be held 2-4 p.m. Aug. 23 at the Carriage House in Salado.

The Griffitts moved to Salado in October 1995 from Bonham, where they lived for 35 years.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Griffitt earned Bachelor's and Master's degrees from East Texas State University at Commerce, and Sam Houston State University in Huntsville. Mr. Griffitt attended Gunter College in New York City one summer.

Mr. Griffitt has 39 years experience in teaching and administration, while Mrs. Griffitt taught 31 years. They both taught in schools in Ivanhoe, Richardson and Bonham. He served as Director of the Fannin Centre of Grayson College for 10 years.

Friends are invited to celebrate their 50th anniversary. No gifts, please.

Ladies Auxiliary luncheon Aug. 14

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Salado Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual membership luncheon at the Stagecoach Inn at 11:30 a.m. Aug. 14.

There will be no formal program, only an opportunity for members to visit and become acquainted.

The cost of the meal will be $13 per person and will be payable by cash or personal check upon arrival. The price includes tax and gratuity.

Reservations must be made by Aug. 12 and may be made by calling Mary Catherine Ervin at 947-8230 or Ruby Townsend at 947-5219.

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE The Universality of the Spirit

"For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body."

— 1 Corinthians 2:12-13

Just think what a wonderful and awesome achievement Jesus accomplished in the establishment of His church. He molded men and women of diverse ethnic and racial backgrounds, and made them as one. It is the Spirit of God that Jesus infused first into His disciples and they into their followers and so on through the centuries until today there is not a place on earth where Christianity is not practiced — and all through that one unifying force. We may not all look alike, or speak alike, or think alike, but in the worship of God and the Christian faith, we are as one body — a universal testament of faith.

Parent/Guardian:

The Salado school serves meals each school day. Children may buy lunch for $2.00 and breakfast for $1.00. Children may also get meals free or at a reduced price.

If you now get food stamps or AFDC/TANF for your children, your children can get free meals. If your total household income is the same or less than the amounts on the Income Chart below, your children can get free meals or reduced-price meals. A foster child may get free or reduced-price meals regardless of your income. The reduced price is $.40 for lunch and $.30 for breakfast.

TO GET FREE OR REDUCED-PRICE MEALS FOR YOUR CHILDREN, YOU MUST COMPLETE AN APPLICATION AND RETURN IT TO THE SCHOOL. WE CANNOT APPROVE AN APPLICATION THAT IS NOT COMPLETE.

HOW TO APPLY

If you now get food stamps or AFDC/TANF for the children you are applying for, the application must have the children's names, a food stamp or AFDC/TANF case number for each child, and the signature of an adult household member. If you are applying for a foster child, the application must have the child's name, the child's "personal use" income, and an adult signature. If you do not list a food stamp or AFDC/TANF case number for all children you are applying for, then the application must have the children's names, the names of all household members, the amount of income each person got last month and where it came from, the signature of an adult household member, and that adult's social security number or the word "none" if the adult does not have a social security number.

Verification: Your eligibility may be checked at any time during the school year. School officials may ask you to send papers showing that your children should get free or reduced-price meals.

Fair Hearing: You may talk to school officials if you do not agree with the school's decision on your application or the results of verification. You may also ask for a fair hearing. You may do this by calling or writing:

Name Lyndal Cabaniss Phone 254-947-5479

Address P. O. Box 98, Salado, TX 76571

Reporting Changes: If your children get free or reduced-price meals because of your income, you must tell the school if your household size decreases or your income increases by more than $50 per month or $600 per year. If your children get meals because you get food stamps or AFDC/TANF, you must tell the school when you are not getting AFDC/TANF or food stamps for them. You may then fill out another application giving income information.

Confidentiality: School officials use the information on the application only to decide if your children should get free or reduced-price meals. Free and reduced-price eligibility information may be subject to release to other federal, state and local education, health, or other means-tested programs. Some programs already identified are the National Assessment of Educational Progress and officials collecting data for Title I allocation and evaluation purposes.

Reapplication: You may apply for meals anytime during the school year. If you are not eligible now but have a change in status, like a decrease in household income, an increase in household size, become unemployed or get food stamps or AFDC/TANF for your children, you may then complete an application.

Handicapped: Meal substitutions at no additional cost for children who meet the definition of "handicapped" will be served, provided a physician has submitted a statement attesting to this fact and prescribing a substitute.

IN THE OPERATION OF THE CHILD FEEDING PROGRAMS, NO CHILD WILL BE DISCRIMINATED AGAINST BECAUSE OF RACE, SEX, COLOR, NATIONAL ORIGIN, AGE OR HANDICAP. IF YOU BELIEVE YOU HAVE BEEN DISCRIMINATED AGAINST, WRITE IMMEDIATELY TO THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE, WASHINGTON, D. C. 20250.

We will let you know when your application is approved or denied.

Sincerely,
 Steven C. Ervin, Supt.

FBC hosts appreciation service Aug. 10 in recognition of SISD teachers, staff

School bells will be ringing in a matter of days and Salado Independent School District faculty and staff will once again be performing their vital services for the youth of our community.

The First Baptist Church of Salado will conduct a special appreciation service in recognition of Salado ISD. The service will be held 5:30 p.m. Aug. 10.

This service will be a time of prayer for faculty, staff, administration and the students of Salado ISD. Pastor Bryan Dunks commented, "We acknowledge the diligent effort that the faculty and staff puts forth every year. We seek nothing more than to honor them for their hard work. Our prayerful support will be with them for the coming year."

First Baptist Church will host a luncheon for the SISD faculty and staff at the Salado Cafeteria noon Aug. 12. The luncheon is another way to thank the members of the school district for all their efforts in educating the young people of our community. A most productive and joyful school year is wished for each of the many people who will have a hand in seeing that Salado youth receive the best education possible.

Edwards accepts applications to academies

U.S. Representative Chet Edwards (D-Waco) announced that his office is accepting applications for nominations to the four U.S. Service Academies.

Persons interested in seeking nominations to the U.S. Air Force, Merchant Marine, Military and Naval academies should have all application materials returned to Edwards' Belton office by November 15, 1997 for the class entering in June 1998.

Candidates must be United States citizens, legal residents of the 11th Congressional District of Texas, unmarried and have no children. Candidates must be at least 17 years of age but not past their 22nd birthday on July 1 of the year of admission.

All applicants must take the SAT or ACT examinations. The SAT administered in October is the last date the test can be taken if results are to be received prior to the selection of nominees.

Selection is based on SAT or ACT scores, class rank, grade point average, school records, extracurricular activities, leadership potential and recommendations. Congressman Edwards will appoint a Service Academy Nominations Board to assist him in making appointment recommendations.

Those interested in seeking nominations should make their intentions known by writing to:

U.S. Representative
Chet Edwards
116 S. East Street
Belton, Texas 76513

For additional information, prospective candidates may contact Academy Coordinator Denise Oviedo at 933-2904.

The Salado Cardinals

Salado Cardinals place 4th in State

The Salado Cardinals baseball team finished fourth at the state tournament for boys 8-9 during the last week of July in Killeen.

Three of the Cardinals' four games were decided by one run.

They opened the tournament with a 9-6 loss at Corsicana and then beat West 2-1 to avoid elimination from the tournament.

The Cardinals then eliminated East Houston 2-1 with the tying run on third, before being eliminated themselves with a 3-2 loss to Hooks.

In the bottom of the sixth and final inning against Hooks, an opposing batter hit a ball that barely stayed fair, allowing the winning run to score.

Small business survival skills course set

The Temple Business Growing Center will enter its first stage of service this fall by offering a 30-hour course in "Small Business Survival Skills" through the Continuing Education Program at Temple College.

The Center, designed to assist and support existing and future entrepreneurs, is a cooperative effort between the Temple Chamber of Commerce and Temple College.

Course instruction will include management, financial and operational aspects of small business, meeting two hours, one evening per week for 15 weeks.

Temple College will award the students a "Certificate of Completion for Small Business Survival Skills."

The Temple Chamber of Commerce will monitor students throughout the program, offering an entrance and exit survey to assist with future adjustments to the course.

"The goal is that we see participants start or expand a small business within six months of completing the course," said Judy Morales, chairperson of the Growing Center's board of directors.

Plans for the project's future include developing a small business resource library to be located at Temple College, successful entrepreneur mentors, continuing classes and seminars, Ms. Morales said.

For information on registration for the course, call the Temple College Continuing Education Program (254) 298-8617.

Bridesmaids were Pamela Billeck of Houston, Marci Brentham of McGaheysville, Va., Amy Hooten of Austin, Michelle Howell of Birmingham, Ala., Laura Watts of Huntsville, Ala., and Macey Wilson and Brandy Wilson, both of College Station.

Best man was Brett Pany of College Station. Groomsmen were Joseph Daniels of Houston, Michael Dudik, Jeremy Lambden and Robert Tarver, all of Temple, Ryan Leshikar of College Station, Joel Lowry of Austin and John Tarver of Lubbock.

Flower girls were Chloe Brentham of McGaheysville, Va., and Brittney Price of Los Angeles, Calif., and ring bearer was Matthew Jones of Marlin.

Seating guests were David Bickel of Temple, Kevin Green of Austin, Kris Klaus of Belton and Michael Perkins of San Marcos.

A reception followed at Wildflower Country Club.

After a wedding cruise around the southern Caribbean, the couple will live in Bryan.

The bride, a 1996 graduate of Texas A&M University with a bachelor of arts degree, is employed as a fourth-grade teacher at Bryan Academy for Visual and Performing Arts.

A 1995 graduate of Texas A&M with a bachelor of business degree, the bridegroom is a supervisor and loan officer at Aggeland Credit Union.

Salado Art Fair

Another Salado Art Fair has come and gone. The dozens of volunteers who give their time to the betterment of the village during the first weekend in August are soothing sunburns, catching up on rest and returning to work. Shown on this page are the fruits of their hard work... a show which attracts thousands to this small village and raises thousands of dollars for many of the civic organizations, chiefly the Salado Chamber of Commerce. Organizers labeled the Art Fair a success with 6,600 paid admission and a net take at the gate of $19,808. (photos by Marilyn Fleischer)

Quilter Wadley to discuss 'Quilting as an Art Form' at Aug. 12 meeting of Village Artists

Carol Ann Wadley will speak on "Quilting as an Art Form" at the 10 a.m. Aug. 12 meeting of the Salado Village Artists in the Village Art Center on the grounds of the Civic Center.

She will also display quilts at this meeting to which the public is invited.

Wadley has been quilting since 1960 when, as a young Air Force wife, she made the first bed-sized quilt out of cotton scraps left over from clothing she had sewn for three toddlers. For the next 12 years she sewed a quilt a year, each completely by hand and, because of the family's frequent moves, rarely started and completed in the same town.

Since then, Carol Ann has made over 100 quilts, both large and small, selling some of them and giving many of them to people she loves. Five of her quilts hang in public buildings and one is in the permanent collection of the Museum of American Quilts in Paducah, Kentucky. Many of her quilts have been published in quilting magazines and books. In 1996, she was given a one woman show at the Cultural Arts Center in Temple.

She has also taught classes for beginning quilters at the Harvest House in Temple.

Swimmer continues pursuit of goals

by John Eubanks

Ismael Avila came to the United States last year to finish high school and pursue a dream of swimming for his native Mexico in the 2000 Olympics.

Thanks to several Saladoans, the promising young man with an infectious smile has accomplished his first goal.

The 18-year-old will continue working toward his second goal during the 1997-98 school year as a member of the swim team at Austin College in Sherman, Texas, a private, liberal arts school noted for its academics.

Avila graduated this past spring from Temple High School while living in Salado with the Rev. Derald and Eleanor Dugger.

Rev. Dugger met Avila while accompanying a youth group from First Baptist Church, Salado, to Mazatlan, Mexico, where Avila lived with his family.

During the visit, Avila expressed a desire to finish school and train in the U.S. But as time went on and the school year approached, the prospect of Avila coming here appeared dim.

It was then that the Duggers felt a calling to get involved. "My wife and I looked at each other and said maybe the Lord wants us to do this," Rev. Dugger said.

The Duggers had always been involved with teen-agers at various churches. "This was more involved perhaps, because he lived with us," Rev. Dugger explained. "But he was a delightful kid to have. It was 36 hours a day, of course."

The Duggers had to get up early enough to get Avila to school before his 6:45 a.m. swim practice. A two-hour afternoon workout ended at 6 p.m.

Despite the distance from Salado, Temple High was a natural choice because of its swim program and curriculum. By the second trimester, Avila was taking honors courses in physics, U.S. history, advanced calculus and computer business programming. His high marks also earned him membership in the National Honor Society.

Although he was ineligible to compete in varsity swim events, he did train with the swim team and was allowed to compete in meets not overseen by the University Interscholastic League.

Before the UIL ruled that Avila had used up his eligibility in Mexico, he placed first in the 100-meter butterfly at a meet in Round Rock.

He was also among the more than 90 Temple swimmers who competed in events sanctioned by U.S. Swimming, an amateur organization and official sponsor of the U.S. Olympics Team.

His swim times were not good enough to earn him an athletic scholarship, however. Avila had considered attending Texas A&M, a Division I school in athletics, after visiting the campus during a physics competition.

But the non-resident tuition may have been comparable to that of a private school like Austin College, a 148-year-old institution related by covenant

Smith is the organizing pastor of the church. He is a native Texan, claiming Sweetwater as his home town. Smith holds a Doctor of Theology degree with emphasis on Hebrew and the Old Testament. He taught religion at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene for 14 years. Prior to retirement as pastor of Westminster Presbyterian Church in Ft. Worth for 18 years.

The church also announces the appointment of Rev. Marilyn Wedell-Legge as Parish Associate. Wedell-Legge, who was a guest in the pulpit during Rev. Smith's absence, will continue to preach, one Sunday during each month.

Lillian Jackson and Marge Kirkman are pianists for the church. Jackson has been an organist and pianist in Presbyterian churches since her teens, several churches in the capacity during her years as a member of the Presbyterian Church. Marge Kirkman, who is accompanist for the Women's Chorus of Salado, has also been a church organist and pianist for several different denominations and churches.

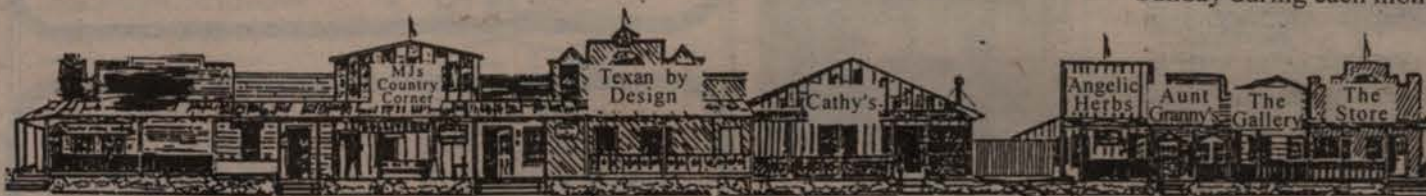

Maxine Maxfield, of Temple, who has a Ph.D. in the field of communication, will conduct children's sermons and supervise the children's Christian education program.

The Salado Church of Christ will host a seminar on "Conflict Management" during a two day series of presentations to which the public is cordially invited Aug. 10-11.

Larry Hall, Family Life Counselor for the Belton Church of Christ, will present the lectures, with the Aug. 10 series to be held at the Salado Church of Christ building at the corner of Stagecoach and Blacksmith Roads starting at 9 a.m. with the subject "Conflict: A Time Honored Tradition" followed by "Ministers of Reconciliation" at 10 a.m. and at 6 p.m. "Fight, Flight or Freedom".

The subject of the final lecture will be "Good and Mad" and will be held at the Salado Civic Center starting at 7 p.m. Aug. 11, with a reception at 7:45 p.m. following the presentation.

Dempsey Stripling, minister of the Salado Church of Christ noted: "We believe this seminar can assist people in both their personal and business relationships. Conflict resolution is especially important in the marriage and family relationship."

"Larry Hall will apply pertinent methods of dealing with conflict in these important areas of life," Stripling added.

The public is especially invited to hear Mr. Hall during the three presentations at the Church of Christ building on Aug. 10 as well as the Aug. 11 seminar at the Civic Center.

Hall approaches the subject of "Conflict" with refreshing clarity and a sense of humor that combines to make each lecture clear, helpful and memorable.

Child care is provided at all four lectures.

Baylor College of Medicine will host 1997 Women's Health Summit

Women are living longer than ever before, creating new challenges and choices concerning their health.

To help educate women about maintaining their quality of life in the later years, Baylor College of Medicine's Huffington Center on Aging and the Center for Women's Health are hosting the 1997 Women's Health Summit: Lifelong Strategies for Healthy Living.

The summit is scheduled for 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Oct. 9 at the River Oaks Country Club, 1600 River Oaks Blvd. A $25 registration fee includes lunch and informational materials.

"This event is an excellent opportunity for women to hear from nationally renowned medical experts about issues directly affecting their health and well-being," said Dr. Robert J. Luchi, director of the Huffington Center on Aging.

Presentation topics will include hormone replacement therapy, exercise, osteoporosis, nutrition, mental health and legal issues.

In addition, Texas native Liz Carpenter will be honored at the summit with the first "Anne Morrow Lindbergh Award for Aging with Grace and Distinction."

As a Washington, D.C., reporter, Carpenter covered presidents from Roosevelt to Kennedy and later became press secretary for Lady Bird Johnson. More recently, Carpenter was appointed by President Bill Clinton to serve on the White House Conference on Aging. She will be recognized at the summit for her professional accomplishments and many years of dedication to women's issues.

The 1997 Women's Health Summit: Lifelong Strategies for Healthy Living is sponsored by Methodist Health Care System, Garden Terrace Alzheimer's Center, NYL Care, New York Life, Wyeth Ayerst, Baylor MedCare, International Academy of Compounding Pharmacists, Marriot Senior Living, The Houstonian Hotel and Conference Center and Hearn Printing.

For more information or to register, call the Huffington Inn at 713-798-6470.

Selling Historic Salado

 Salado Civic Square, #105
 (next to Salado Civic Center)

Swimmer - FROM 3B to the Presbyterian Church. AC fields several athletic teams but, as a Division III school, it does not award athletic scholarships.

The high cost of attending the school (approximately $21,000 yearly for all costs) forces many students to come up with various ways to fund their education.

Austin College has awarded Avila a Dean's Scholarship that will furnish him $10,000 a year for the next four years.

Dean's scholarships are awarded to students who enhance the cultural diversity of the AC campus. They are generally a first-generation college student, a student from a minority population traditionally under-represented in higher education or an international student. All recipients have a strong academic record in a college preparatory curriculum and most rank in the top 10 percent of their high school class. These scholarships are renewable annually and have a four-year value of $24,000-$40,000.

Avila will combine the scholarship with a $4,000 gift he received from an anonymous donor in January. He has also received $500 from an individual in Salado and another $500 from the Ladies Auxiliary of the Salado Chamber of Commerce.

Two other donors have committed $1,000 apiece for each of the next four years and another has committed $500 per year.

Rev. Dugger said Avila is about $2,000 shy of having his first year funded. While part of the committed money could be used to cover that gap, "We don't want to tap into future funding, if we don't have to," Rev. Dugger said.

Other individuals and groups are doing a variety of things to help out, too.

Not to be overlooked in this effort are Avila's parents, who also have three teen-agers younger than Ismael.

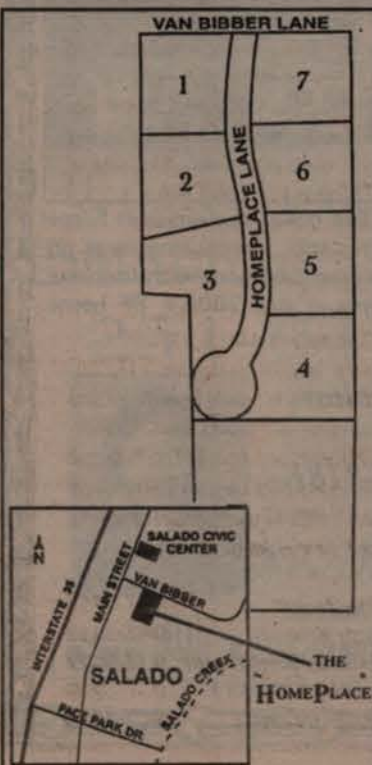

"They are very, very appreciative of what has been done on Ismael's behalf," Rev. Dugger said.

Avila has been in Mexico the past few weeks, competing in swim meets. He advanced from regionals to the Mexico nationals, finishing eighth in one event and 12th in another.

Rev. Dugger believes Avila may still be suffering the lingering effects of the mono-nucleosis he got in the spring.

Despite not being at full speed, Avila advanced to the nationals after earning seven first places at regionals, three of which qualified him for nationals.

"The Olympics in 2,000 in Sydney (Australia) is not out of his mind," Rev. Dugger said.

THE HOMEPLACE

 Nestled on a tree-covered knoll in Salado's Historical District, THE HOMEPLACE represent the much sought-after lifestyle of yesteryear. A winding lane meanders around large live oaks to a dry creek crossing. Its character reflects a day in history where people shared time together on front porches. Only a short walk away is excellent shopping, art galleries and dining, giving a reflection of Salado's past.

THE HOMEPLACE will reflect proportions, detailing and simplicity of true classical architectural styles. "Something old, something new" literally comes to life as treasures from historic homes are blended in harmony with new construction. The best of yesterday . . . built better today.
