Tim and Marilyn Fleischer, publishers of Salado Village Voice newspaper and Salado: A Jewel in the Crown of Texas magazine.

Salado Village Voice: always independent, family-owned and hyperlocal since 1979

While the Salado Village Voice is not the first newspaper in Salado, it has had the longest life-span since being founded in 1979. The Fleischer family bought the newspaper in 1988, marking 35 years in Salado in Spring 2023.

The first newspaper known to be published in the village was the Salado Newsletter. Published by E.W. Billings, the first edition came out on August 25, 1874. Only one copy of the newspaper exists at the newspaper collection of the University of Texas at Austin.

The Grange published another newspaper, The Texas Farmer in Salado, but it was later moved to Dallas.

Reference to a third Salado newspaper has been found on a letterhead in the Rose Papers at the University of Texas at Austin. The Salado Sentinel was published by A.S. Hornbeck. No copies of the Salado Sentinel are known to exist today.

Salado Village Voice founder Dayton Kelley was a native of Bell County, a journalist and a historian. He taught journalism at the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor for 12 years before accepting a position as Director of the Texas Collection at Baylor University in Waco. After Dayton passed away, his sons Dennis and Bill ran the Salado Village Voice, selling it to the Fleischer family in 1988.

Since the Fleischer family purchased the newspaper, a week has not passed that the newspaper has not published. Salado Village Voice has published the quarterly magazine Salado: A Jewel in the Crown of Texas for more than 30 years.

Visit saladovillagevoice.com for breaking news, the latest Calendar of Events and information on many of the events in Salado.

Salado Village Voice was named the first Business of the Year by the Salado Chamber of Commerce in 2002. Marilyn Fleischer was named to the Hall of Fame by the Chamber for 2019.

Trick or Treat on MonsterStreet

J.H. Reynolds, bestselling children's book author of the MonsterStreet series, and his family will be hosting their fourth annual "Trick or Treat on MonsterStreet" event on Pace Park Road 6-9 p.m. Oct. 31.

The event includes the traditional community jack o' lantern blaze, giant animatronics, fog machines, spooky lightning, creepy music, and big candy bars for trick or treaters.

The Reynolds house has become a favorite stop for hundreds of trick-or-treaters in Salado these past few years, with young readers getting to walk into the world of the MonsterStreet stories in the local author's yard.

The northern section of Pace Park Road will be blocked off from traffic 6-9 p.m. Oct. 31 to keep the street safe and dark for the jack o' lantern blaze and MonsterStreet event.

Attendees are encouraged to park on Main Street or at the Pace Park pavilion.

JH Reynolds is the author of the MonsterStreet series of books, including The Boy Who Cried Werewolf; The Halloweeners; Carnevil and Camp of No Return.

Bring your scariest Jack O' Lantern to the Reynolds House.

Christmas Carol stays true to Dickens

By Jackie Mills

After winging it through two years of A Christmas Carol, I called Harry Sweet and asked him to direct a true version of Dickens' A Christmas Carol.

"What script do you use?" Harry questioned. After I hemmed and stammered around a bit, Harry said, "In other words, Jackie, you want me to write a script based on Dickens' story of A Christmas Carol and then direct the play?"

"Exactly." I explained. And he did.

Both Dickens and Harry Sweet have passed on to their greater rewards, but the story and the play lingers and grows more important to everyone each Christmas than any other story except for the Bible's history of the birth of Jesus Christ.

Harry kept the play exactly like Dickens wrote the story; with only one minor addition. Dickens did not name Nephew Fred's wife in his story. Harry's age, his love of the theater and the fun loving twinkle in his eye made him name Fred's wife "Ginger" for the play. Harry must have watched a lot of Fred Astair and Ginger Rogers movies in his misspent youth. I feel sure Dickens forgave Harry! And the minor change took nothing away from the story that has always renewed our faith in our fellow man, gave us Hope for the future and taught us the true spirit of Charity.

We always leave the amphitheater appreciating our family and loved ones and firmly set on a more righteous path. No wonder it is a favorite Christmas play!

In 2023, for the 31st year,

Charles' story and Harry's adaptation for the stage will once again grace Tablerock's Goodnight Amphitheater on Friday and Saturday nights of December 1-2 and December 8-9 with the Yuletide rendition of A Christmas Carol.

A Christmas Carol will have a cast and crew of more than 60 zealous actors and polished crew members to entertain the masses.

Ticket sales at the gate will be sold starting at 6 p.m. with the performance beginning at 7 p.m. Adults $15, Students $10, Child (12 & under) $5.

For information about group tickets (20 or more) call (254)308-2200.

Popcorn, nachos, hot dogs, hot chocolate and funnel cakes will be ready for the concession stand to open at 6 p.m.

In Harry's will he bequeathed

Marley's ghost as portrayed by Howard Horton.

his A Christmas Carol script to Tablerock with instructions to "Keep the play true to Dickens."

And Tablerock does just that.

Mermaids take over Salado

On the first weekend of October every year, mermaids take over Salado. Sirena's Creekside Carnival, hosted by Legacy Salado Inc., a local 501c3 nonprofit, honors the beloved tale of Sirena by bringing together the community and beyond on Saturday, October 7 at Pace Park for a promenade that celebrates the crowning of the Creekside Carnival Princess and Catfish King, along with a host of fun, free activities for families. This year, attendees can expect live music, live mermaids, vendors, food trucks, a zoo show, petting zoo, storytime, performances by Native American dancers, and so much more. The promenade starts at 9:30 a.m., and the festival will be 10 a.m.–6 p.m.

The Tonkawa Legend of Sirena is a story near and dear to Saladoans young and old alike. The legend, featuring a young Native American woman named Sirena being tricked into becoming a mermaid by a magical catfish, was brought to life by local artist and sculptor Troy Kelley, who created a bronze sculpture that honors the tale his Native American grandmother told him as a young child.

Each year, Legacy Salado Inc. selects a project that improves and enhances the Village of Salado's public spaces or community members.

Last year alone, Legacy Salado Inc. donated $48,705 towards Salado's all-abilities playground.

Since the Village of Salado considers the playground project fully funded and construction is slated to begin soon, Legacy Salado has found a new project this year. Driven by a passion to make a difference, the 2023 project will be constructing Little Food Pantries in the Village. Salado ISD Superintendent Dr. Michael Novotny has agreed to the first Little Food Pantry being placed at the Salado Civic Center site, with more locations planned around Salado soon. A non-perishable food drive will also be held at Sirena's Creekside

Jenny Campbell, mom, grandmother, and veteran, is the 2023 Official Mermaid for Sirena's Creekside Carnival on October 7. Photo by Triton's Daughters Photography.

Carnival to keep the pantries, and Salado families, full for years to come.

Volksride rolls October 21

The Barrow Volksride is the third Saturday in October in Salado. In 2023, it will be on October 21.

This ride supports the brave men and women of the Salado Volunteer Fire Department. Register at <https://www.bike-reg.com/barrow-volk-ride>

Riders choose from 16 mile, 32 mile, 66 mile, or 100 mile routes in the scenic Central Texas hill country. Routes start and finish at Barrow Brewing Company and cover roads from Holland to Belton and Nolanville. The 66 and 100 mile routes are a challenge with 2,500 feet of climb. Routes are fully supported until 1:30 p.m. Riders not back at that time are directed to a short-cut.

Partners from the SVFD and the Sheriff's office will be located at some key intersections during the ride. Riders must wear their registration bib numbers at all times.

This is a family friendly event that ends with a cold pint and a hot, fresh pretzel at the finish line. Enjoy the Oktoberfest celebration after your ride. There is authentic German food, German music, and German games all day long... plus incredible craft beer.

Riders must have registered by September 30 to receive the souvenir t-shirt. They are the softest shirts with a design you will be proud to wear year-round. All registrants will receive a pint and hot pretzel, redeemable by tags on their bib numbers. This event is rain or shine. There are no refunds but registrations can be transferred.

To register for the Volksride, visit <https://www.bikereg.com/barrow-volk-ride>. Registration is $65.

Hickory Golf Tournament returns

The ancient game of golf, played as it was during its earliest beginnings in Scotland, makes its return appearance here in Salado, when Salado Senior Center hosts the fourth annual Pioneer Classic Hickory Golf Tournament at Mill Creek Golf Course, November 4-5. The two-man team event is sponsored by area businesses and benefits the Salado Senior Center.

"We are very excited to again be included on the Hickory Golf Association of Texas (HGAT) tournament circuit this year," says tournament organizer Dave Swarhout.

The golf weekend features special guest William W. Reed, past president of The Golf Heritage Society (a global non-profit organization headquartered in Lebanon, Ohio) who will display an extensive collection of historic golf equipment and artifacts at Mill Creek throughout the weekend.

"The public is welcome to come out for the opening tee-off ceremonies at noon on Saturday, which will include Pipe Major Doug Slauson performing on the course, and to view the historic golf items on display in the clubhouse," says Swarhout. "Of course, there is no charge but donations to the Senior Center are always welcome!"

What makes Hickory Golf unique is that the players use clubs that have a solid hickory wood shaft as did clubs used in the late 19th and early 20th Century. The players also dress the part, with men wearing vintage-style golfing knickers, jackets and caps.

To register in the tournament and support the Salado Senior Center, contact Swarhout at 414.378.2341 or email dswarhout50@outlook.com.

Entry is $150 per player and includes two rounds of golf with meals afterward (dinner on Saturday and lunch on Sunday). A commemorative ball is $5 or a sleeve of five golf balls for $15. Players can also rent hickory shaft clubs for $35.

19th annual Salado Chamber of Commerce Golf Tournament Oct. 17 at Mill Creek Golf Course

The 19th Annual Salado Chamber of Commerce Golf Tournament will be at Mill Creek Golf Course on October 17. Come out swinging for the Salado Chamber! Tee off is at noon.

There will be fun activities and refreshments for the golfers. Get your team together. This tournament will be sure to make a "golf" day!

Players will enjoy a golfer's goodie bag, food, networking, & lots of fun in the sun!

We are accepting sponsorships at this time! Visit salado.com to register to play as an individual ($125) or a team of four ($440). You can also register as an exclusive tee-box sponsor for $250 or a cart path or tee sponsor for $150.

The annual Ball Drop is sponsored by Horizon Bank. Just before the tee-off, a Robinson R44 Helicopter will drop numbered balls onto the golf course. Ball drop tickets are $10 or five for $20. The ball closest to the hole wins a whopping $1,000!

Party with the Scots

The annual Highland Games will be held on the grounds of Thomas Arnold Elementary.

Salado Highland Games, Gathering of Clans marks 62nd anniversary

Sixty-two years ago, on November 12, 1961, people from around the country who shared Scottish ancestry came together in Salado for the First Gathering of All Scottish Clans. Tartan banners waved bearing the name of each clan and more than a thousand people attended. Every November since, the Scots have gathered in Salado to celebrate their heritage making this the oldest Scottish festival in Texas.

This year, the 62nd Scottish Gathering and Highland Games will be held November 10-12 on the grounds at Thomas Arnold Elementary School on Thomas Arnold Road in Salado. Proceeds benefit Salado Museum and College Park, the 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that has hosted the event since its inception.

This is the place to experience all things Scottish -- the skirl of bagpipes, wearing of the tartan, tossing the caber, Highland dancers, Celtic music, men in kilts, Scots shops, good eats and more.

One of the event's main features is the Clan Village, the largest gathering of Scottish Clans in Texas where members of up to 40 Scottish clans and societies will share information with visitors about Scottish history and genealogy.

The weekend begins on Friday evening when a torchlight ceremony is held on the banks of Salado Creek. The solemn ceremony recreates the coming together of the ancient Scottish clans to fight with Robert the Bruce for Scotland's freedom in 1314 at Bannockburn. The Calling of the Clans is free and open to the public and starts at 6 p.m. creek side off Royal Street just north of the museum. A ticketed "Welcome Social" follows at the Museum.

Christmas Stroll

Experience the magic of Christmas in the idyllic Village of Salado during its 63rd Annual Salado Christmas Stroll historically held the first two weekends of December and presented by the Salado Chamber of Commerce.

December 1-3 and December 8-10: dozens of beautifully decorated boutiques open their doors for you to enjoy Late Night Shopping Fridays and Saturdays until 9 p.m. (or later) and Sundays until 5 p.m. Salado's Boutiques will be well stocked with a variety of unique merchandise, so you are sure to find something for everyone on your Christmas list. Make your way from shop to shop with ease as you sip hot cocoa strolling down Main Street's beautifully lighted sidewalks. Horse Drawn Carriage Rides will guide you down Main Street most weekends as you take in all the lights, sounds and warmth of the season.

Have you been naughty or nice? Visit Santa both weekends at The Stagecoach Inn. Times can be found on salado.com or the Stroll Facebook Page.

On December 1-2 and December 8-9: The "Greatest Story Ever Told" comes to life Friday and Saturday evenings during the 63rd Annual Salado Christmas Stroll. From 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. First Baptist Church of Salado presents their Live Nativity at 210 South Main Street.

A long-standing tradition during the Salado Christmas Stroll is Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol." Tablerock Amphitheatre of Salado will present their 31st Annual Performance of Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol". The show begins at 7 p.m. on December 1-2 and December 8-9. Tickets for the show will be available for purchase online at CentralTexas-Tickets.com.

Saturdays, December 2 and December 9, head on over to Barrow Brewing Company and browse local handmade crafts at their Christmas Market, as you enjoy live music, tasty beverages, and food trucks. The Christmas Market will be held noon-6 p.m.

There will be FREE parking throughout the Village of Salado, including the Salado Civic Center, Brookshire Brothers, First Baptist Church of Salado, Church of Christ and more.

Information about the 63rd Annual Salado Christmas Stroll and the events listed here, and others can be found online at <https://business.salado.com/calendar> or the Stroll Facebook Page. Pick up the Salado Village Voice for the most up-to-date calendar of events for Stroll.

Oktoberfest Weekends at Barrow Brewing Co.

Barktoberfest will go to the dogs on October 28

Barrow Brewing Co. will celebrate five weekends of Oktoberfest on September 30, October 7, 14, 21 and Barktoberfest on October 28.

Oktoberfest is an annual festival that originated in 1810 in Munich, Germany. It originally marked the celebration of the marriage of the crown prince of Bavaria, who later became King Louis I, to Princess Therese von Sachsen-Hildburghausen.

It is celebrated in Texas in many German communities to recapture the Bavarian sense of gemütlichkeit—cordiality. Beer goes a long way towards that, as does good German food and music.

The weekends of Oktoberfest at Barrow Brewing will feature German food truck on the grounds, Stein holding, hammerschlagen competitions, a Vendor market and Live Music.

Weather permitting the three routes taking off at 8:30 a.m. The final route sweep is 3:30 p.m. The 50 KM and 100 KM routes have over 1,800 feet of climbing, travel the county roads east of Salado into Holland and are supported.

Riders who registered September 30 were guaranteed a ride t-shirt and all rides will receive a pretzel and drink at the end. Bring the family and stay for the Oktoberfest that follows. Proceeds from the registration will benefit the Salado Volunteer Fire Department.

Online registration of $60 per rider is available at <https://www.bikereg.com/barrow-volk-ride>. For more information, email barrowvolksride@yahoo.com or call 512-810-0611.

The Barrow Volks Ride will kick off the fourth Saturday of Oktoberfest on October 21. The Barrow Volks Ride is a ride for all cyclists with distances of 16 miles, 32 miles, 66 miles and 100 miles and will take off and end at Barrow Brewing Co. The longer two routes have over 2,500 feet of climb Oktoberfest is going to the dogs on October 28! "Barktoberfest" (bring the weenie dogs and Shepherds!). Go ahead, bring all the dogs for this fun day. German food truck on the grounds, Vendor Market and a dog costume contest.

Golf Tourney Oct. 7 benefits charities of local Masonic Lodges

The Masonic Lodges of Bell County will host a benefit golf tournament Saturday, October 7 at Mill Creek Golf Club.

The tournament will feature a $10,000 Hole-in-One prize with bonus hole-in-One prizes to include a Scotty Cameron Phantom X putter, Yeti Tundra Cooler and an Apple I-Pad 128 GB.

The tournament proceeds benefit scholarships to local Bell County high school graduating seniors and other charitable and community work of the Bell County Masonic Lodges: Belton Lodge #166, Salado Lodge #296, Knob Creek Lodge #401, Zerne Lodge #615, Killeen Lodge #1125 and King Solomon Lodge #1427. These lodges work in unity through the District 48 Master, Wardens and Secretaries Association.

American Freemasons give more than $1 million per day through their charitable organizations.

Players can register for $100 at <https://bit.ly/45Wbt9B>. Teams of four can register for $350 at <https://bit.ly/3rcYyB8>. Entry fee includes green fees for 18 holes of challenging golf on the Robert Trent Jones II designed Mill Creek course and a shared cart. Mulligans can be purchased for $5 or five for $20. Sign in begins at 9 a.m. with tee time at 10 a.m.

Tour of Homes set

The Salado Historical Society Christmas Homes Tour will be 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday, December 2.

“This year we are very excited to have these fabulous homes decorated for Christmas and waiting for your enjoyment,” said Homes Tour Chair Shirley Lett.

Advanced tickets will go on sale at the Salado Public Library, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. November 25 for $20. Tickets may be purchased at the Library 8:30 a.m.-2 p.m. December 2 for $25 per person. On line tickets may be purchased online at centraltexastickets.com.

On tour this year are the following

- Home of Sam and Rhonda Dowdy, a Texas Salt Box in Pace Park.
- The Historic Log Cabins on Van Bibber Road.
- Home of Roy and Deanna Robinson, a Farmhouse Estate on Van Bibber Road.
- Home of David and Lauren Patterson, a Ranch House on Salado Creek and Van Bibber Road.
- Home of Jim and Lisa Gurno, a Homestead on Whispering Oaks.
- Home of Grear and Stacey and Howard, a Cape Cod Bungalow on OW Lowrey.

Proceeds benefit the Salado Historical Society, which has recently taken on as its next big project the relocation and restoration of the old Salado Church of Christ chapel on Main St., moving it to sit next to its collection of cabins Brewing Company Friday night after the Calling,” says Liz Patranello, co-chairman of the Scottish Gathering. Murder the Stout, a rousing Celtic music band, will be playing at the brewery Friday and Saturday nights, as well as at the Gathering on Saturday and Sunday.

On Saturday, the grounds at Thomas Arnold Elementary open at 9 a.m. where activities include the Clan Village, bag-piping and drumming competitions, Scottish athletics competitions (including the Caber Toss and the return this year of the popular Hammer Throw), Highland Dancing competitions, live Celtic music, a Bonniest Knees contest, a Scottish shortbread contest, food, shopping and more.

One of the most anticipated events of the day is the Bands and Clans Parade that forms at Main St. and North Pace Park Road at noon and moves west along Thomas Arnold Road to the festival grounds. Official opening ceremonies follow with presentations and a massed bag-pipe bands performance. Spectators are invited to stand along the route or bring lawn chairs to enjoy the parade. (Parade route available on the festival website.)

Sunday events begin at 9 a.m. with the Kirkin’ o’ the Tartan, a traditional Scottish devotional service and continues with athletics competitions, Pipe and Drum and Highland Dance performances, Pet Costume Contest and Parade, Clan tents, live music, shopping and food booths.

Third annual Jingle Walk on Salado's Magic Mile

The Salado Ladies Community League is in high gear planning their third Annual Jingle Walk, as part of the "Christmas in October" celebration. This year, the event will cover three days, Friday, October 13, Saturday, October 14, from 10 a.m.-6 p.m. both days. Sunday October 15 hours will be from noon-4 p.m.

The Jingle Walk allows participants to walk along the Salado "Magic Mile" and shop locally for lovely clothing and unique, one-of-a-kind gifts for everyone on their Christmas list. You will need all three days to see everything the shops have to offer. Each $30 Passport entitles participants to collect a special gift from each of the participating businesses that are visited during the shopping day(s). Shoppers who visit the participating shops will be eligible to be entered for the drawing of a door prize.

There will only be 250 Passports available for this event and may be purchased online starting September 1. Log onto Central Texas Tickets Website, centraltexastickets.com and click on the Salado Christmas in October Jingle Walk event. As a 501(c)3, all proceeds are returned to the community through grants and scholarships. For more information and deals on local lodging visit us on Facebook the web site at WWW.SaladoLCL.org.
